SAYS CAUSE IS RELIGIOUS ONE

Roosevelt Attributes New Phase to Progressive Movement.

PRETTY HARD TO IMPROVE ON BIBLE

He Tells Arkansas Folk He Feels as If He Had Been in Crusade.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 25.—"I feel as if I had been in a crusade," said Col. Roosevelt today.

Coming into the old south, with his trip through the west at an end, he said he felt that he had been well repaid for his western campaign. He said he had heard that the progressive party was well on its feet and that he had heard good reports of the movement in the south.

At the bottom, Col Roosevelt continued, the progressive movement was a religious one. He said that one of the things which had impressed him most was the singing of "Onward, Christian Soldiers," at meetings which he has addressed.

"It is pretty hard to improve on the bible," he said. "All we are trying to do inthis twentieth century is to apply the old injunction to do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Col. Roosevelt reached Little Rock after a night's run from McAlester, Okla. He was to spend most of the day here, leaving late this afternoon for Memphis.

RABBI MESSING OBJECTS.

Criticises Use of Hymn in Political Conventions.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Rabbi Aaron J. Messing, of Bloomington, Ill., is reported to have deserted Col. Roosevelt for Gov. Wilson because the delegates to the New York progressive state convention sang "Onward, Christian Soldiers" after nominating Oscar S. Straus for governor.

NIGHT RIDERS SEE GOOD ARGUMENT IN SHOTGUNS.

Henderson, Ky., Sept. 25.—When a squad of "night riders" arrived at the tobacco farm owned by J. Stokes Taylor, this morning they were unexpectedly met by Mr. Taylor and a party of his friends, who were armed with shotguns. After a half hour's parley the visitors presumed to be members of a tobacco pool competing against an organization headed by Taylor, were allowed to depart.

Several of the "night riders" carried ropes at their saddles.

TAFT GUEST AT ALTOONA

President at Anniversary of Loyal War Gorvenor's Conference.

COMMEMORATES A HISTORIC EVENT

Mr. Taft Speaks in Tent Following Parade Which Featured the Day.

Altoona, Pa., Sept. 25.—This was President Taft and Governor's day at the Altoona celebration at the anniversary of the loyal war governors' conference held here fifty years ago to consider the civil war situation. President Taft and Governor Tener, of Pennsylvania, were the guests of honor.

United States Senator Penrose, members of congress and the descendants of several of the civil war governors who participated in the famous conference helped in the celebration. President Taft arrived here at 6:30 a. m., but remained in his private car for breakfast and a short rest before he took up his part of the program. Although the day was cloudy and rain threatened, the big feature of the day, a parade of civil war veterans, national guardsmen and school

GIRL'S BODY HAD BEEN MUTILATED

Chicago Authorities Investigate Death of Miss Annie Rice.

CASE IS PUZZLING

Chicago, Sept. 25.—The coroner's office today started an investigation of the death of Miss Annie Rice, who expired at the residence of an Edgewater physician after two days' of wandering about Chicago. Detectives have traced Miss Rice's movements for several days prior to her death, with the exception of one twenty-four hour period, which was not accounted for.

Miss Rice, who had been employed in a southside home, applied for shelter and medical aid at the Edgewater home, where she died. The physician who cared for her there said she was ill of pneumonia and extremely enfeebled when he first saw her.

Miss Rice's body was discovered in a westside undertaking establishment by Coroner Physician Henry G. W. Reinhardt, who ordered the inquiry into the death. Dr. Reinhardt said the girl's body had been mutilated.

New Photo of Unfortunate Czarina and Her Boy—Fear is Her Daily Companion!

These photographs of the czarina of Russia and her only son, Alexis, have just arrived in the United States from St. Petersburg. Reports say that his beautiful imperial Alice, who was a care-free princess of Hesse-Darmstadt before her marriage, is still afflicted with nervous melancholia because of her fears that her boy or one of her four girls will meet death at the hands of terrorists.

FIFTY MEN COME TO RESIDE HERE

Accept Permanent Positions in Freight Department of Pennsylvania.

LABORERS ARE SCARCE

Edward H. Kirkland, freight agent for the Pennsylvania company at this point, returned this morning from Chicago, bringing with him fifty men who will be given employment at the local freight house.

The men were brought here on account of the scarcity of local labor, and other concerns are adopting the same plan of procuring help. Laborers are being brought from all the larger cities constantly, yet at this date, employers report a continued shortage of help.

The fifty men who accompanied Mr. Kirkland from Chicago all speak English and eighty-five per cent of them are native born. Most of them contemplate locating here permanently, and will move their families to this city. Mr. Kirkland states that the

DELEGATES TO NATIONAL MEET

EARLY NEXT MONTH

Acting upon an invitation received from the executive board in charge of arrangements for the national conservation congress, to be held at Indianapolis October 1, 2, 3 and 4, Mayor Jesse Grice has appointed five men to represent Fort Wayne at the big meeting.

The delegates from this city are Postmaster E. B. Hanna, Maurice C. Niezer, Carles L. Biederwolf, Theodore F. Thieme and Charles J. Steiss.

Mr. Niezer, in attending the congress, goes as the representative of three organizations. Recently he was appointed as a delegate from the National Bar association, and he will also officiate in the capacity as president of the Jefferson club, of Allen county, when the organization goes to Indianapolis October 3, to assist in the ceremonies attending the address of Governor Woodrow Wilson.

Three of the presidential candidates will be present at the meeting and addresses will be delivered during the three days by President Taft, Theodore Roosevelt and Governor Wilson.

OMITS POLITICS AT LITTLE ROCK

Roosevelt Confines Himself to Subject of Deep Waterways.

GETS WARM WELCOME

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 25.—Issues of the political campaign were temporarily laid aside by Theodore Roosevelt today when he spoke here before the convention of the Lakes-to-Gulf Deep Waterways association. There was no hint of partisan politics in Little Rock's reception to Col. Roosevelt. Democratic officials joined with progressives in the welcome.

On Col. Roosevelt's arrival he was driven through the city escorted by a band, three companies of United States troops from Fort Logan Heights and a number of citizens in automobiles. Then he went to his hotel and held a reception

GATHERING IN THE MATERIAL

Governor Requests Reports from All the State Institutions.

FOR THE LAW-MAKERS

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 25.—Gov. Marshall has sent out blanks for reports from all state institutions, state departments, boards and commissions, for returning information from which the committee of the 1913 legislature will make its report to the general assembly. The reports are of three general classes, one for the educational institutions, one for other state institutions and one for the boards and commissions. Blanks were sent to seventeen charitable and penal institutions, three educational institutions and about forty boards and commissions.

The action was taken by the governor in line with his procedure in 1911, when log-rolling methods in the last few days of the meeting of the legislature was done away with because the appropriation bills were dealt with early in the session. The governor's plan to collect all the statistical information needed by the visiting committee and have it on hand, ready for the committee members to begin tabulating as soon as they are appointed after the election.

When the reports from the institutions are to be returned to the governor by Nov. 1, and those from departments, boards and commissions by Dec. 1.

SAYS AVIATORS WERE TO BLAME

Aero Club Disclaims Responsibility for Fatality at Chicago.

WHEN GILL MET DEATH

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Officials of the Aero Club of Illinois today placed blame on the aviators at the continuation of the inquest of Howard W. Gill, who was killed when his biplane collided with a monoplane driven by George Mestach at the Cicero aviation meet.

D. D. Griffith, member of the contest committee and starter of the race on Sept. 14 in which Gill was killed, testified that no aviator was ordered into the air that day.

"Mestach insisted on going into the race," said Griffith. "I asked George Provost, the French aviator, if he would not race with Mestach, but Provost refused, saying it was too dark for safety. Then Mestach insisted that he was going up alone."

CONFERENCE AT FINAL SESSION

Treatment of Inebriety and Care of Delinquents Among Themes.

STUDY THE PROBLEMS

Washington, Sept. 25.—Modern treatment of inebriety and the care of dependent and delinquent children were among the subjects scheduled for discussion at the first session of the national conference of Catholic charities here today.

Separate meetings of the sections of the conference dealing with needy families, dependent children and delinquent children were on the program for this morning, prior to the final general meeting of the conference. Among the addresses to be delivered were "Modern Views and Methods of Treatment of Inebriety," Dr. John A. Horgan, Roxbury, Mass.; "Our Catholic Immigrants," William J. Vavera, Chicago, Ill.; "Selection of Children for Foster Homes," Wm. J. Doherty, New York; "Education of the Dependent Child," Brother Henry, director of the New York Catholic protectory, and "Treatment of Delinquent Children," Michael Francis Doyle, Philadelphia.

The conference adjourned to meet in Washington in 1914. An attempt to change the constitution to provide annual meetings was defeated.

FIRST CLASH IN NEW YORK

Opening Game of World's Baseball Series There on October 8.

ALTERNATE EACH DAY WITH BOSTON

National Commission Fixes Up Details at Meeting in New York.

New York, Sept. 25.—The opening game of the world's baseball series will be held in this city on Tuesday, Oct. 8. The games will alternate between here and Boston, one game in each city until the series is concluded.

The Boston club will control the sale of ticket in that city. This is a victory for Ban Johnson in the American league.

The umpires selected were: National league, Klem and Rigler; American league, O'Loughlin and Evans.

The toss of a coin decided which city was to get the opening game. A second toss, with similar result, fixed the opening game for Tuesday, Oct 8. The Boston club preferred Monday, Oct. 7.

In New York the sale of tickets will be handled by the national commission. Boston has worked out a plan, it was announced, whereby the tickets will be delivered so far as is practicable, to persons who have already made application. Their applications have been filed and they will be notified to send the money. The tickets good for three games each will be issued.

In New York, with a view to defeating the speculators, the only seats reserved will be a block of 8,500 on the upper grandstand. Seats in the lower grandstand and bleachers will be sold at the Polo grounds and each person purchasing a ticket must pass directly into the grounds.

SIBLEY IS TOO ILL TO TESTIFY

Pennsylvania Man Cannot Explain Archbold Letters.

WILL NOT BE CALLED

Washington, Sept. 25.—Former Representative Joseph C. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, probably will not be called before the senate committee investigating campaign expenditures, to explain letters he is alleged to have written to John D. Archbold, copies of which Wm. R. Hearst has published. The committee has learned that Mr. Sibley is in a sanitarium in such poor physical health that his testimony would be of doubtful value.

Mr. Archbold will probably reappear before the committee next week. His departure from England today is expected to bring him to New York early in the week.

Senator Clapp stated today that no witnesses connected with the so-called tobacco trust had been summoned, but officers of the retail dealers association have been asked to furnish names of men whom they want questioned about campaign contributions.

Chairman Clapp has written Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, asking him to appear before the committee and furnish any information he has concerning his statement that campaign contributions had influenced the removal of Dr. David Jayne Hill as ambassador to Germany.

WARM FIGHT ON PERKINS

GAUMER IS OUT FOR SECRETARY

Routine Business Takes Up Large Part of Today's Session.

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 25.—Routine business was transacted by the State Federation of Labor in session here today. President Edgar A. Perkins announced his selections for the various convention committees. Those named on the resolutions committees are as follows:

W. D. Van Horn, Mine Workers, Terre Haute; E. P. Barry, Typographical union, Indianapolis; J. O. Vance, Metal Polishers, Elkhart; E. L. Brown, Bartenders, Terre Haute; Fred Hohenherzer, Bottlers' union, Evansville.

Politics within the organization are getting warmer as the convention gets under way. Supporters of Henry Friedman are making a desperate effort to win enough votes to defeat President Perkins, who is a candidate for re-election. Another contest for office was started today when Clarence Gaumer announced that he would be a candidate for secretary-treasurer against George J. Schwab, the present holder of the office. At the conclusion of the after-

DURBIN ON PROGRAM

Richmond, Ind., Sept. 25.—Members of the boards of commissioners from more than half the counties of Indiana were present when the ninth annual convention of the State Association of County Commissioners was opened here today. In addition to the county commissioners there were many county auditors and county attorneys in attendance.

J. B. Wyss, of Fort Wayne, president of the association, presided and Henry C. Fox, judge of the Wayne circuit court, welcomed the visitors, assuring them Wayne county had faith in organizations of county public officers endeavoring to bring about improved conditions for the benefit of the people.

The session was devoted to the registration of delegates and to the disposition of miscellaneous business of minor character.

W. T. Durbin, of Anderson, republican candidate for governor of Indiana, was to close the afternoon's program with a talk on business methods as applied to public office.

STOLEN "MONA LISA" IS NOW IN ST. PETERSBURG.

London, Sept. 25.—Leonardo Da Vince's masterpiece, "Mona Lisa," stolen from the Louvre museum in Paris in August of last year, is hanging on the walls of a private gallery in St. Petersburg, according to a report published in a Russian paper and transmitted today to a news agency here.

A Laugh Better Than Medicine

YESTERDAY was the eighty-first birthday of William E. Hood, of 1229 West Wayne street. But at this time Mr. Hood is spending a period at Hope hospital, where he is recovering from an illness, so his friends of the Sol D. Bayless lodge of Masons sought to brighten the day for him by sending him a beautiful floral remembrance. To make the thought still more individual, they decided to have a special design made which contained the figures 81, indicating the age of Mr. Hood.

The remembrance reached the hospital all right and was nicely fixed up before being taken to Mr. Hood's sick room. In response to the tap of the nurse, Mr. Hood said, "Come in." She carried the beautiful and fragrant piece before her and watched the smile which came over the face of the patient.

"It is beautiful, isn't it?" observed the nurse.

"Yes, it surely is," responded Mr. Hood; "who could have sent it?"

"The Masons," responded the nurse, "and wasn't it a nice thought to put your age in the design?"

"My age?" observed Mr. Hood, and with that he settled down for a hearty laugh, whereupon the nurse discovered that she was holding the design wrong-side up, so that the figures read 18 instead of 81.

"It is beautiful; isn't it?"

Mr. Hood, while he was cheered by the remembrance of his friends, believes that laugh did him a world of good because he is up and dressed today and will soon be as strong as ever.

REV. JOHN HARDEN WELL KNOWN HERE

WAS IN THE SOUTH

Word has been received in Fort Wayne telling of the death of Rev. John Harden, who passed away Saturday at the home of his daughter in West Terre Haute. Rev. Harden was pastor of the Free Methodist church in this city, during the conference year of 1878 and 1879. He was here again in 1888.

News of his death is received as a shock by his many friends in this city. During his ministry here Rev. Harden formed many friendships, both in the church and among people of other congregations.

After leaving Fort Wayne he entered the ministry of the Congregational church and served as pastor in many places about the country. The last three years were spent at Tempe, Ariz. In February of this year his health failed and he was forced to retire.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Craig—Funeral services for James T. Craig will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of a sister-in-law, Mrs. Margaret H. Sprandle, 221 East Wayne street, Rev. Edward Montgomery officiating. Interment at Lindenwood.

The Wayne lodge, No. 25, F. and A. M., will have charge of the funeral at the grave in Lindenwood.

Treaster.—The remains of John Treaster, who died Monday at his home on Fairfield avenue, will be shipped to Columbia City at noon Thursday over the Pennsylvania railroad.

LETTERS GO IN EVIDENCE.

Correspondence of Mrs. Boyce and Sneed Shortly Before Shooting.

Amarillo, Texas, Sept. 25.—Len Boyce, brother of Al Boyce, with whose murder John Beal Sneed is charged, was the first witness in today's hearing of the habeas corpus proceedings here. After identifying his brother's handwriting, the witness said he had written to Al G. Boyce in Fort Worth during July of this year under the names of "Johnson" and "Oldsby."

John Pace, of Clayton, N. M., brother-in-law of Mrs. Sneed, testified to his receiving letters for Mrs. Sneed under her own and other names after the trial of Sneed for killing the elder Boyce at Fort Worth. Despite strenuous objections of the prosecution the correspondence between Mrs. Lena Sneed and Al G. Boyce, for two weeks immediately preceding the shooting were today admitted into evidence at the request of the defense.

H. H. Steele, of Dallas, told of the various places of residence of Mrs. Sneed during Sneed's trial at Fort Worth and subsequently.

FIRE AT KABLE RESTAURANT.

Timely Arrival of Fire Department Keeps Loss Down.

The kitchen of the Kable restaurant, on West Main street, got on fire at an early hour this morning and the blaze caused considerable excitement around the transfer corner. The flames started from grease from the cooking range and communicated to the ceiling near the smoke pipe. Any delay in the arrival of the fire department might have caused a bad fire. The loss amounted to only $15, and the building is owned by Fred Eckert.

MARSHALL AT KALAMAZOO.

Governor to Deliver First Michigan Speech of Campaign.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 25.—Gov. Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana, democratic candidate for vice president, arrived here today to make his first political speech in Michigan during the present campaign. He was scheduled to speak at Recreation park. Tonight he will address the delegates who have gathered in Grand Rapids for the democratic state convention that will be held tomorrow.

DEBS IS LEADING HERE.

Socialist Ahead in Straw Vote at Silk Mills.

Eugene V. Debs, socialist nominee for president, has a long lead in a straw vote for president reported from the Thieme Bros. silk hosiery mills in this city. The figures were: Roosevelt, 3; Taft, 2; Wilson, 2; Debs, 19; Chafin, 1.

PRESUME HE WAS LYNCHED.

At Least, Louisiana Mob Disappeared With a Negro in Charge.

Shreveport, La., Sept. 25.—A mob took from deputies at Grand Cane, La., late last night, Sam Johnson, the half-witted negro who recently killed Percy Alexander, a Shreveport lawyer. The mob disappeared in the woods and it is presumed the negro was lynched. His body has not been found.

TO TALK PROHIBITION.

Rev. C. M. Hollopeter to Speak at Court House.

Rev. C. M. Hollopeter, of Monroeville, well known in this city, will deliver a prohibition address Friday evening at the assembly room of the court house at 8 o'clock. Good music will be provided and everybody is cordially invited to attend.

HART STAYS ON THE JOB.

Hot Springs, Ark., Sept. 25.—John W. Hart, who represented Police Lieutenant Becker of New York at the hearing completed here Monday night, did not leave Hot Springs yesterday as he had planned, but probably will remain here several days. It is understood that Mr. Hart expects to get important statements bearing on the Rosenthal murder case from persons other than those who appeared at the hearing.

NAME DATES FOR COUNTY MEETING

Niezer, Callahan, Yaple and Hilgeman to Address Voters.

COMMITTEE AT WORK

The speaking committee of the democratic county central committee has just made arrangements for two important meetings, and by tomorrow night will have completed plans, with a full list of speakers, for most of the meetings to be held within the next three weeks in the different townships of the county and wards of the city.

Chairman Johnson announces that Charles Niezer and Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Stephen A. Callahan will address the voters of Eel River township, at a meeting to be held at the Center school house Friday night. On the same date a meeting will be held at Boston, in Madison township, and the speakers will be Judge Carl Yaple and Harry H. Hilgeman.

Plans will be perfected before the end of the week for the meeting to be held at Princess rink, October 3, when Hon. Samuel M. Ralston, democratic nominee for governor delivers his first campaign speech in Allen county.

Progressive Committees.

Chairman Charles M. Preble, of the Allen county progressives, has just appointed the reception committee to receive Albert J. Beveridge Friday night. The members are: Fred Wahrenberg, Harry Kellar, Dr. J. W. Bowers, John S. O'Day, Frank Bohn, Will Meyers, Allen M. Hartzell, C. B. Fitch, William Beck, Dr. C. C. Kimmel, Ervin Holt, Hale Ashley, A. M. Youngmacher, Richard Morton, Michael J. Moylan, Fred Kiefhaber, John Todd, Harry E. Wineland, Clifford Smith, Joseph Burger, Joseph H. Weste, Benjamin Falk, F. J. Hills, Henry Frosh and William Insley.

The committee will meet at the Anthony hotel at 7 o'clock.

VETERANS ADDRESS THE YOUNG.

Meeting at Democratic Headquarters Was Well Attended.

Most of the democratic county candidates, together with a number of other prominent democrats, attended a meeting held Tuesday night at headquarters. The younger men at the meeting, those who are new in the political game, were given welcome advice by the veteran speakers who outlined the issues of the campaign.

The meeting was addressed by Maurice C. Niezer, chairman of the speaking committee and president of the Jefferson club; John W. Eggeman, candidate for circuit judge; Harry H. Hilgeman, candidate for prosecuting attorney; Hon. James M. Barrett, Hon. James M. Robinson, Albert E. Thomas, District Chairman Edward G. Hoffman and others.

The other speakers who attended besides those mentioned above were: Guy Colerick, Phil Colerick, Harry F. Kenner, Bert Somers, Judge Aiken, Stephen A. Callahan, B. W. Kerr, Ray McAdams, Frank Dulin, Anselm Fuelber, Martin Luecke, William O'Rourke, Jesse Macbeth, Harry Mueller and William Freuchtenicht.

PROGRESSIVE VICE-PRESIDENTS.

Two Hundred Will Escort Beveridge From Hotel to Rink.

Two hundred voters, led by O. M. Hart as grand marshal, will act as escort for Albert J. Beveridge and will march from the Anthony hotel to Princess rink Friday evening, where the bull moose candidate for governor is to address a mass meeting.

Fifty women and as many men will act as vice-presidents and will occupy seats on the stage. The men are:

James B. Harper, S. B. Bechtel, William Woebbeking, John Linderberg, Charles Ehrman, Captain Kelsey, Amos Walters, Paul Mossman, Charles S. Bash, Andrew Surface, Huntertown, route No. 2; William Burrell, Huntertown, route No. 1; William Chatman, Huntertown, route No. 1; John Dickson, Ora Richard, James Ballou, Huntertown; Frank Bohn, George Bradley, A. SEEKING A CONFERENCE.

Striking Miners at Bingham, Utah, Have Little Encouragement.

Bingham, Utah, Sept. 25.—The leaders of the 4,500 Bingham copper miners who are on strike for higher wages continued today their efforts to bring about a conference with D. C. Jacklin, general manager of the Utah Copper company. They admit that so far they have met with little encouragement but say they will continue these overtures so that if an amicable adjustment fails the fault will not be theirs.

No demonstration of any kind was reported last night although a number of Greek strikers were seen on the hillside with rifles. The Greeks are being warned by labor leaders not to carry arms.

EARTH TREMORS CAUSE ALARM AT ROCKFORD, ILL.

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 25.—Two distinct earthquake shocks, the first coming at 12:10 o'clock, were felt here today. Dishes were scattered from dinner tables by the tremors which continued for several seconds. The shocks caused considerable alarm.

OFFERS AMNESTY TO THE REBELS

Mexican Government in a New Movement to End Rebellion.

OTHER MEANS FAIL

Mexico City, Sept. 25.—A new movement to obtain peace in northern Mexico was made today when President Madero and his cabinet instructed the minister of war to offer amnesty to the followers of Pascual Orozco, the rebel leader.

Stringent measures, such as the government's recent suspension of constitutional guarantees and the execution of numerous rebels failed to have the deterrent effect anticipated by the government. The revolution in the north, which two months ago was confined principally to the state of Chihuahua, has spread to Sonora, Coahuila and other states. Only yesterday President Madero asked congress for an appropriation of twenty million pesos or a loan authorization, and admitted there was less than thirty million pesos in the national treasury. The government is convinced of the truth of reports that Gen. Higinio Aguilar, of the regular army, who recently disappeared from the capital, is at the head of a large body of rebels operating on the boundary between Puebla and Oaxaca.

MAKING CLOSE SEARCH.

Fear Arms and Ammunition Have Been Sent to Strike Territory.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Adjutant General Charles D. Elliott, accompanied by a number of other military officers, left here today for inspection of the country surrounding the martial law zone. It is stated that the military authorities fear large quantities of arms and ammunition have been shipped into Montgomery and other towns where striking miners have been holding meetings and if this fact is found to be true, it is probable the martial law boundaries will be extended and the arms confiscated. While the plans of Governor Glasscock have not been divulged, it was reported here today that he is quietly arranging to withdraw the military from the strike country and restore the task of maintaining order to the civil authorities. This move, it is stated, will be resisted by the coal operators, who are alleged to oppose any action that will not give them complete protection and they hold that with conditions as they are this would be impossible.

LISTENS TO ADDRESSES.

Member of English Parliament Speaker at United Irish League.

Philadelphia, Sept. 25.—Speech-making took up almost the entire morning session of the biennial convention of the United Irish League of America, home rule for Ireland being the theme of all the addresses. Among the speakers was Sir George Croydon Marks, a liberal member of the British parliament. He told the delegates that it was the desire of the liberal party to give to the Irish home rule which, he added, had been withheld from them too long. He complimented the league for the work it has done in America to advance Ireland's cause.

CUT DOWN ON SPEECHES.

Gov. Johnson Will Deliver But Three a Day Hereafter.

Boston, Sept. 25.—An afternoon speech at New Haven, Conn., and a night address at Hartford, comprised the schedule of Hiram W. Johnson, the progressive vice presidential candidate for today. He left Boston at 9:15 o'clock for New Haven. Hereafter the governor will not make more than three speeches a day if he can avoid it. His voice is in good shape for the first time since his Illinois campaign and he believes that with no more than three assignments a day it will give him little trouble.

CLEVELAND MAN SPEAKS.

"Enthusiasm" is W. B. Rose's Subject Before Quest Club.

W. B. Rose, of Cleveland, will deliver an address before the Quest club at its meeting this evening to be held at the club rooms. His subject will be "Enthusiasm."

BUYS ELECTRIC LINE.

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 25.—Attorney Jacob Newman, of Chicago, today, acting for bondholders of the Chicago-Milwaukee Electric Railroad company, purchased the Illinois property of the railroad company in a master of chancery sale at the Lake county court house, paying $1,650,000 for it and $50,000 additional for the line running west from Lake Bluff to Rockefeller, Ill.

MIGHT MAKE OWN ATTAR OF ROSES

Horticulturalists Conducting Experiments Along this Line.

TO BE TRIED IN JUNE

Washington, Sept. 25.—Horticulturists of the bureau of plant industry are conducting experiments with a view to growing a rose which thrives on American soil and from which attar of roses can be distilled.

The world's supply of this perfume oil now comes largely from Southeastern Europe. Last year's importation, about 10,000 ounces, sold at an average price of $15 per ounce. The Southern France and Bulgaria product is often adulterated or is of low grade. The purest attar of roses produced is in Germany, but it is very costly and little is exported.

The bureau has been carrying on its experiments with the roses for a year. One thousand varieties were imported from Europe and planted in a rose garden at Arlington. The first "harvest" was gathered recently.

The roses were gathered early in the morning, with the dew still on them. The petals were placed in a special still and distillation made by applying a low pressure of steam. The product was found to be of much higher quality than that sold by the peasants of Southern Europe. The quantity was small, however, averaging less than an ounce to 400 pounds of rose petals. The European attar averages an ounce to 200 pounds.

The horticulturists are encouraged by the quality of the perfume they have produced. They believe that a somewhat higher average quantity would justify American manufacturers placing an attar of domestic make in competition with that of Europe. Some new methods of distillation will be tried on the "harvest" next June.

CALLS IT BUNGLING.

Mayor Harrison Denounces Escape of Canadian Bank Robbers.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Mayor Carter Harrison today characterized the escape of the Canadian bank robbers from the Chicago police as the worst case of bungling that he could imagine.

"Captain John J. Mahoney and Lieut. Bernard P. Burns both are to blame," said the mayor. "Captain Mahoney should have given the case his personal attention and Lieut. Burns never should have attempted to make such an arrest single handed."

Several women habitues of the James Sidlas saloon, where the bank robbers loafed and where Lieutenant Burns was badly beaten, were arrested by the police today. Captain Halpin, who examined the women, said that none of them had told him a straight story of what occurred the night Burns attempted to make the arrest. The women were ordered held for further examination.

HELD IN CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Trust Company Officers at South Bend Fined by Judge Anderson.

Indianapolis, Sept. 25.—The American Trust company of South Bend and its officers, Samuel Leeper, president; Eugene H. Miller, secretary and treasurer; J. C. Eberhardt, jr., first vice-president, and Walter H. Muessel, second vice-president, were adjudged in contempt of court and each fined $1 and costs in federal court today for violating a decree of the court entered April 11, 1911, in the litigation over the Healy wirebound box patents.

TROOPS MOVE TO BELFAST.

Belfast, Ireland, Sept. 25.—Large forces of troops are to be moved to Belfast in preparation for Ulster day (Sept. 28) when the anti-home rule covenant is to be signed by the unionists of that province. Orders were sent from headquarters at Dublin castle today to Brigadier General Count Gleichen, in command here, to that effect. He was informed that the first battalions would reach Belfast on the evening of Sept. 27. The Lord Mayor of Belfast has been informed that the troops are coming.

BEATS WIFE AND BABY.

Both in Critical Condition at the Hospital.

Mrs. Danou, an Italian woman, residing at 1920 Thomas street, with her little baby, is at St. Joseph's hospital in a critical condition, suffering injuries inflicted by the husband. The baby is also in a serious condition and is bruised from its head to its feet. The husband has been at large since last night, when he is said to have beaten his wife and baby, and officers are seeking him.

STATE DEPARTMENT DENIED IT.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 25.—In an official statement today the state department denied that efforts to place an international loan in China through the six-power group had been abandoned. That a statement issued yesterday by the American group of bankers indicated a change in this government's attitude was emphatically denied.

RELEASED FROM PAROLE TO TAKE HONEYMOON TRIP.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Count John Draskovitch Orloff, of Croatia, today was released from parole by Municipal Judge Sabath to permit the count to spend a honeymoon of several months in Europe with his wife, who was Miss Mary Henrietta Sparrow, a wealthy Chicago woman.

Creditors caused much trouble for Count Orloff just before and after his wedding here. Finally a typewriter concern had him arrested on a charge of larceny as bailee, and Aug. 15 Judge Sabath placed the count on probation for one year.

SAYS WOMAN CAN SOLVE PROBLEM

Don't Marry Man Without Health Certificate, Advises Doctor.

EDUCATION, NOT FEAR

Washington, Sept. 25.—The activities of various agencies in disseminating infectious diseases and the relative importance of flies, shell fish and other carriers of bacilli in transferring typhoid fever, diphtheria, cholera and influenza were among the topics for discussion on the program of today's session of the fifteenth International Congress of Hygiene and Demography meeting here.

Experts from Germany, France, England and the United States were scheduled to talk. Among those to speak were Dr. L. O. Howard, chief of the United States bureau of entomology and probably the greatest authority in the country on the fly as a carrier of disease; Prof. Conradi, of the University of Halle, Germany; Dr. J. C. G. Ledingham, Lister institute, London; Prof. George S. Natal, Cambridge university, England; Dr. J. Jochmann, Berlin; Prof. Mesnil, Pasteur institute, Paris; Dr. W. L. Moss, Johns Hopkins university; Dr. Samuel T. Darling, Ancon, Panama, and Dr. Herbert D. Pease, New York.

Infant mortality in this country and elsewhere, the present position of municipal vital statistics, sanitary supervision of merchandise in transportation, disposal of sewage and wastes, school inspection and the economic aspect of hook worm in the United States were other subjects on the day's program.

Woman Can Solve Problem.

When women make it plain that they will not marry unless the groom can produce a doctor's certificate of perfect health on that day the problem of sex hygiene practically will be solved, declared Dr. R. S. Wile, of New York, in an address at the exhibition hall of the congress. Pointing to charts, models, photographs and life-size casts illustrating the effects of disease, he declared that he would rip out the whole thing, with the exception of the section on eugenics.

"Do you suppose that chamber of horrors has a moral reforming or even an educational effect?" he asked. "I do not believe that fear is a high ethical concept to appeal to. Our reform must be turned, not toward dragooning the young to do right, but toward the inculcation of that right thinking which leads to right doing. The education of girls is the crux of the problem, for they can most effectively train the boys."

MONEY to LOAN

We will lend at eight per cent per year to any man or woman with a satisfactory income that we are willing to trust with or without security. If the borrower is unwilling or unable to pay the charge of five or ten per cent per month as others charge, come to us, we will lend the money to you at eight per cent per year, and will give you a written statement and agreement to that effect.

If all reputable lenders would do likewise it would change public opinion that lenders practice extortion, which crusaders so unjustly allege.

REPORT IS DISCREDITED.

Washington Does Not Believe Marines Were Slain.

Washington, Sept. 25.—A published report from Panama that twenty-five American blue jackets had been killed at Leon, Nicaragua, in an encounter with forty rebels, was discredited today by officials of the navy and the marine corps.

The last dispatch from Central America received at the navy department shortly after noon was from Rear Admiral Southerland, in command of the American forces in Nicaragua, and reported the situation quiet.

Early dispatches to the state department today contained no advices from the revolution in the Dominican republic. Preparations for moving the 750 marines to protect the customs houses on the Haytien border were pushed forward and some time time today the movement of marines from posts along the Atlantic seaboard is expected to begin. They are to be concentrated at Philadelphia and rushed south on the transport Prairie.

News of Our Neighboring Towns

HIS WIFE ELOPED WITH BEET WORKER

Decatur Husband Says Let Her Go if She Thinks More of the Other Man.

Decatur, Ind., Sept. 25.—Mrs. Stella M. Cramer, wife of John S. Cramer, left yesterday for parts unknown with Gus Consmith, a Belgian beet worker employed during the summer by Charles Elzy and Lee Vance on the George Zimmerman farm just east of the city. The couple took little trouble to conceal their departure, which was over the Clover Leaf railroad.

Consmith resided on the Zimmerman farm as did also Mr. and Mrs. Cramer for a part of the summer and here it is supposed the friendship between them originated. Later the Cramers removed to this city and resided near the Clover Leaf depot in the south part of the city. While the friendly relations existing between the couple were not generally known to the public and the elopement came as very much of a surprise, Mr. Cramer had not been ignorant of the facts and some domestic trouble had recently occurred over the matter.

Mrs. Cramer, whose maiden name was Stella M. Reynolds, is about 22 years old and was married to Mr. Cramer five years ago February 12 last. They have no children. Mr. Cramer takes the matter in a philosophical manner and will make no effort to apprehend them, his position being that if she thinks more of the Belgian than of him she is perfectly welcome to go with him. He, however, wants it understood that he will no longer be responsible for any obligations she might contract. Mr. Cramer asserts that this is not the first time her affections for other men had made trouble in his family but that the thing had occurred before.

WARSAW TO HAVE STREET CARNIVAL

Council Grants Use of Streets—Event Held Second Week in October.

Warsaw, Ind., Sept. 25.—Warsaw will have a street fair. The city council has given the use of the streets of the city for this purpose. The petition asking this grant was signed by forty residents and the council, with only one dissenting vote, granted it. The carnival will be held the second week in October.

The fair will be in the nature of a county fair. Farm products and a limited amount of stock will be exhibited and prizes will be awarded for the best exhibits. The amusement feature of the gala week will be in charge of Fred Heiny and he has promised that no attraction of a questionable character will be brought here. William Winebrenner has been selected to act as secretary and treasurer and he will have charge of all the funds. In granting the right to use the streets, the city council reserved the right to place whatever restrictions they desire.

CLERK IN BANK ADMITS ROBBERY

Admits He Stole $55,000 Package and Later Returned Cash.

SOLVES A MYSTERY

Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 25.—William H. Bell, a 20-year-old bank clerk last night confessed that he robbed the local First National bank Tuesday of a package containing $55,000 of the Louisville & Nashville pay roll and substituted a worthless package in its place. Fear that the officers would suspect his brother caused Bell to confess.

The young clerk had been in the employ of the bank for two years. In his confession he declared he had planned to get the money a week before the pay roll was made up. Sunday he made a bogus package similar in shape and size to the pay roll package of money. Tuesday afternoon when the Louisville & Nashville pay roll was being fixed for shipment, he slipped the package containing the $55,000 into his locker and substituted the dummy in its place.

No one noticed the change and the bogus package together with a shipment of $20,000 was taken to the express office.

Tuesday night Bell took the package of money to his home in a suit case. Activities by detectives and officials when the robbery became known caused him to return the money Saturday.

He wrapped the package in a newspaper and after notifying the cashier of the First National bank where the missing money would be found he placed it on the back steps of the bank building.

The cashier disregarded the anonymous telephone message, believing it a joke. The package was found by the janitor.

Beating the Anti-Gambling Law.

Indiana will take uncommon interest in duly noting that the disreputable Chicago race-track gambling syndicate is purposing an early invasion of this state with a new device for beating the anti-race track gambling statutes of Indiana. It is boldly announced that in connection with a race meet at the new Porter race course in October there will be full and complete preparations to take away the money of the gullible in a style altogether novel and presumably painless. Stripped of its detail, the race track gambling syndicate has devised an entirely new "programme" system whereby those who desire to substantiate their judgment of speed and horseflesh by a deposit of money will be accorded full facilities for doing so without resort to the time-honored methods of the skin game in its earlier and more crude days. It is the plan to sell "certificates of credit" which will establish wagering relations with the syndicate, but there will be no balancing of books and no actual exchange of cash on Indiana soil. All this is to be done in Chicago, and the syndicate depends for its own safety upon the fact that it will be impossible for the authorities of either Indiana or Illinois to interfere for the reason that it cannot be proven that a definite and complete gambling transaction in violation of law occurred in either state. It is difficult to contemplate such brazen defiance of law with any sort of patience, and the authorities of both Indiana and Illinois will be remiss in their duty if they do not co-operate in prompt efforts to thwart what threatens to be a disgrace to both states.

It will usually be noted in the case of a police raid involving both men and women that somehow the male contingent manages to shield his identity behind an assumed name, while in the case of the women or girls involved there is seldom consideration of this character. As a matter of fact, the "eminently respectable" men who are entangled in affairs of this character are entitled to no more shielding than their companions, and if any good purpose is to be served by publicity it ought to be played fairly. A police rule to insist upon true names upon the blotter instead of assumed cognomens might be efficacious to a surprising degree in dealing with situations of this character.

Political speakers of all parties are now emphasizing to voters the fact that as yet something like 25 per cent. of the normal vote has not been registered, and that but one day—October 7—yet remains in which to qualify for voting in November. If you personally happen to be a fraction of the 25 per cent. that has neglected to perform this important duty up to this time, don't allow anything to prevent you from reaching the registration booth on the one remaining day that is yet open to you.

Complaint is made that sidewalk contractors in the down town sections are allowing rubbish of various kinds but of remarkably uniform unsightliness to litter the cross street at some points long after they have completed their work. There will be no objection to such inconvenience as is unavoidable in the way of litter and refuse attendant upon work of this kind, but the city authorities ought to see that aggravation of this character is not unduly prolonged.

Fort Wayne delegates to the convention of the Indiana Federation of Labor at Richmond, are extending a cordial invitation to that body to come to this city next year, and local commercial bodies have seconded the motion. The finest sort of welcome is awaiting the federation in Fort Wayne.

MARSHALL'S PHILOSOPHY.

(St. Louis Republic.)

One prime condition of party effectiveness is a proper appreciation of the leaders of the hour. Governor Marshall, democratic candidate for vice president, is being freely eulogized as a "great campaigner," a "vote-getter," a popular speaker of no ordinary powers of appeal. These things are happily true. But something much more important is true of him. Governor Marshall is a political philosopher.

A man is not a philosopher because he thinks, or even because he thinks right. He is such because his thoughts hang together in a definite way. A philosopher not only knows certain truths, but he understands how those truths are related to each other. He can stand at any one of a series of positions in the course of an argument and point you back to the one he has just left and forward to the one he is just going to. It is the philosopher who influences the thinking of other men. After they hear him they can shut their eyes and see the road he took them over.

Governor Marshall is several other things besides a connected thinker. He is a teller of good stories. He is a maker of epigrams. He is a humorist. He is a master of homely Hoosier English. He has about him an infectious human sympathy. But beneath speech that is always easy and sometimes carelessness run the structural members of a definite system of thought.

Like all great democrats, he begins with the individual. Brought up in a country village, where there were no "masses," but simply individual Sams, Jacks, Bills, Marys, Susans and what not, residence in cities and professional contact with abstract principles have never blinded his eyes to the fact that happiness and misery, opportunity and its lack are individual things. His "social gospel" is simply a gospel for individuals. His message is a message for individuals.

He starts with the proposition that democracy is not a system, but an "attitude of mind." The phrase is not carelessly chosen. He does not mean a state of mind. An "attitude" in this connection is a position assumed with relation to something else. Democracy, according to the governor of Indiana, is a certain attitude toward one's fellow-man. On the foundation of this conception he builds up his theory of individual responsibility to the state. And in the light of this conception he makes his diagnosis of the social and political diseases of the present day.

These last go back to individual cowardice and laziness. "When a man with an ax to grind goes to the legislature," he says, with a terseness worthy of Lincoln, "you know before he goes that he will grind his ax on the legislative grindstone. When he does it, I don't blame him. I blame you. For you sent him there."

Governor Marshall is, therefore, disposed to seek the remedies of present evils, not so much in new law and governmental schemes—though he gives legislation its full weight as an instrument—as in a new sense of individual responsibility. He declares that the trouble with our present government is not that it is unrepresentative, but that it is representative—representative of popular indolence, popular frivolousness, popular carelessness, popular sloth.

Believing that democracy is an attitude of mind, he finds the hope of a new state, like that of the kingdom of heaven, "within you." From this it results that his message is a message of hope in men. He is not hawking institutional panaceas or pointing out trails leading to law-made Utopias. He is appealing to the possibility of a great new awakening of his fellow-men to the importance of certain homely and seasoned political virtues, and asserting that if we, as citizens, go to work on ourselves, we shall find the heavy end of our political difficulties inside us, and the lesser part of them in the field of legislation and formal institutions.

A democratic philosophy such as this, not held as merely matter of theory, but espoused with passion and applied with the fearlessness of the born crusader, is bound to give an account of itself in the national campaign. Those persons who disagree with Governor Marshall would do well to begin to think their own positions out carefully and prepare to stand on the defensive.

FALLING LEAF AND FADING TREE.

The breeze rustles through the trees, and the golden, brown and red leaves come floating down to earth. Night begins to don her sable mantle earlier, the birds will soon wing their way to the south, and glorious summer will pay her lingering farewell.

It is a very glorious thing, this summer of ours. Even the filth, the ugliness and the sordidness of our cities cannot altogether rob summer of its beauty. From even the meanest street one can raise one's eyes to the glorious blue of the infinite sky and review the majestic procession of fleecy clouds; the sun gilds with its rays the ugliest building and imparts to it something of its own splendor, and velvet night conceals the ravages of man as it reveals in its blazing stars the majesty of God. There are few of us who do not feel some regret at the passing of summer, and yet, to the man who loves nature, fall is one of the most beautiful and wonderful seasons of the year.

Let us forget our troubles, forget for a little the bitter struggle of life, all the heartlessness, the inhumanity, the selfishness, the greed, all those vices of men that endlessly war against beauty, and go out and commune with nature. Let us muse for a while on the serenity with which the mighty mother moves about her eternal purposes.

In these days nature is preparing for the marvelous changes of winter. She is stripping the trees and the shrubs of their foliage as the first step in the great transformation. Come out in the parks and watch her at work. How trivial and commonplace seem the labors of the greatest of human artists, compared with this master of masters. Look at the colors on those leaves—that brilliant yellow, this rich crimson, all those wonderful browns, blending so marvelously with that beautiful green background. Then look upward, look at the sky where the sun is setting. What a riot of color, and each tint with a message, each glow with a tale of the coming change.

Slowly, with majestic tread, nature moves onward to the fulfillment of her unalterable purpose; and think you that that purpose does not include us, the most perfect of her children? Who may doubt it? In the bewilderment of our sorrows, in the persistency of our pain, faith oftentimes grows weak. But in our heart of hearts do we really doubt? We know that we are not plaything things of blind fate, but a part in a tremendous scheme which shall one day be worked out to infinite good.

Often our burdens seem too heavy for our strength, our courage falters and despair creeps upon us. Yet, remember this: If the eternal spring does not dawn for us, it will for those who come after us. What gleams of sunshine we have were bought for us by the tears and the anguish of those who went before. Let us not be untrue to our trust.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and color restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

The growth and beauty of the hair depends on a healthy condition of the scalp. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy quickly kills the dandruff germs which rob the hair of its life, color and lustre, makes the scalp clean and healthy, gives the hair strength, color and beauty, and makes it grow.

THE PRESS SOUNDS A PROSPERITY NOTE

"Working Full Time."

Washington Post: "Neither Colonel Roosevelt nor Governor Wilson is making any references to the great wave of prosperity which is sweeping over the country. The steel mills are working full time; all other mills are working to capacity; the railroads at last are making extensions and the crops give promise of being phenomenal."

"Imposing Totals."

Cleveland Leader: "Never in the history of the country has there been any such period of immense exports. Never were the imposing totals of the export business made up of so great a variety of merchandise. The export trade was never before established on so broad and firm a foundation."

$2,204,000,000 in Export.

New York Tribune: "The ability of the United States to sell abroad in a single year surplus products worth $2,204,000,000 is a remarkable testimonial to the efficiency of our present economic system. It is one of the chief causes of high wages and easy employment here."

"Nine Billion Dollars!"

Pittsburg Dispatch: "Nine billion dollars! The mightiest wizard of mathematics cannot conceive the reality of $9,000,000,000; yet every dollar of that, and more, will be handled this year by somebody, all in connection with products of the soil—and politics can't feaze it!"

Pessimist Little in Evidence.

Birmingham Age-Herald: "Notwithstanding the backward condition of the cotton crop in some states, the south is enjoying a high degree of prosperity. All through the east, and through the north and the west one hears optimistic talk. The pessimist is little in evidence anywhere."

"Luxuries."

Philadelphia Press: "The fact that the people of this country require $200,000,000 worth of 'luxuries' to supplement those produced at home is of supreme significance as indicating diffused national prosperity."

THE FIRST TOUCH OF FALL.

WILL LOCATE IN WEST.

Osborne Garber, of Lakeside, accompanied by his wife and son, left the city last night for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will reside in the future. Mr. Garber has been connected with the Lincoln Life here for some time, but will enter the employ of a western insurance company.

Want Pink Cheeks—Red Lips?

Some unfortunate men and women are prone to wonder why some of their friends are blessed with an abundance of color—pink cheeks and red lips—while theirs are always colorless. The reason for this last named condition is—there is not enough red blood corpuscles in the blood—under a microscope the blood is thin and watery. The flesh is flabby, too. Well known physicians assert that the regular administration for several months of three-grain hypo-nuclane tablets will greatly improve the color, add to the weight, make the cheeks pink and the lips red, and in general be very beneficial. For self administration, obtain from any of the best apothecary shops.

BUMPED BY STREET CAR.

John L. Gronau, Aged Man, Has Narrow Escape.

John L. Gronau, 70 years of age, was hit by a Lewis street car at 6:30 o'clock last evening while walking on the tracks. Gronau was under the influence of liquor, according to the report made of the accident, and the motorman did not see him in time to stop his car. The aged man stepped aside to get out of the way of the car, but was side-swiped by the car and thrown to one side. The car was in charge of R. J. Brown, conductor, and W. J. Abels, motorman. When these two men reached the fallen man he appeared to be dead, but soon revived, and was taken home at Pittsburg and Lumbard streets in the patrol wagon. The accident happened just in front of the opening under the Wabash tracks on the extension of the Lewis street car line. This is almost the identical spot where Mrs. Sheridan was killed while trying to save the life of her baby some months ago.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT

The Way Samose Works Its Wonders Guaranteed by Meyer Bros. Co.

More than half the readers of The Sentinel would give almost anything to be plump and rosy instead of thin and scrawny.

Physicians and chemists for years have studied the problem of making a flesh-forming food but it is only within the last few months that a bright man discovered the prescription that taken with the daily meals gives a positive increase in flesh. In fact it was so certain in its action that a guarantee was attached to each package stating that if weight did not increase as a result of using it, the purchase price would be refunded.

This preparation is now put upon convenient form for use under the name of Samose.

Meyer Bros. Co. has secured the agency in Fort Wayne for Samose and as the percentage of satisfactory results from the use of this prescription is so nearly one hundred per cent, they feel there is no risk in offering to refund the money if Samose does not do all that is claimed for it.

Everybody that is thin and out of health should begin today the use of Samose with a guarantee like this.

COMBINATION

GERMAN AMERICAN NATIONAL BANK

The word, "combination" is not here used in its ordinary, modern, business sense.

It has reference to the happy combination that has made this bank the great success that everyone knows it to have been.

It refers to the fact that the officers are practical and successful bankers, while the directors are practical and successful business men.

That makes a combination mighty hard to beat, especially when the officers and directors all pull together.

This bank also combines the safety of a national bank with the conveniences of a savings bank. It maintains a saving department where interest is paid at the rate of 4 per cent.

CITY TAX LEVY IS PUT HIGHER

Council Committee of the Whole Finally Fixes Total at $1.16.

RAISE FOR FIREMEN

The city council last evening sitting first as a committee of the whole, and later in regular session, advanced the city tax levy to $1.16, four cents higher than the present levy, and two cents higher than the recommendation of the controller in his budget for 1913.

It was also decided to give the park board the revenue from an 8 cent levy, establish a garbage fund and give the firemen a raise of $5 each per month, if a special ordinance is put through over the objections of the board of public safety.

A motion to carry out the original decision and place the total levy at $1.14, which was practically agreed upon last Friday, was lost by a vote of nine to six. Councilman Rogge then moved that the levy be raised to $1.16, giving one cent to the firemen and restoring one cent to the park board. This was carried, ten to five, Braun, Bauer, Kinder Pfleger, Rogge, Sarver, Strodel, Van Sweringen Wagner and Welch, voting for it, and Dittoe, Felger, Haller, Hamilton and Schroeder against the issue.

The majority report to the council, signed by all of the members who had voted for the measure except Bauer, was adopted over the minority report, and the appropriation ordinance went through on its final passage, nine to six, the vote standing as it did on the motion, excepting Bauer, who had signed his name to the minority report.

The Revised Levy.

The revised levy is as follows:

General purpose and interest, 86¼ cents; track elevation, 10 cents; park fund, 8 cents; sinking fund, 5 cents; electric light plant fund, 2½ cents; firemen's pension fund, 1 cent; police pension fund, 1 cent; monument fund, ¼ cent, and garbage fund, 2 cents.

The additional cent added for the firemen goes into the levy for general purposes, from which it may be taken by the board of public safety.

Chairman J. C. Hutzell, of the board of public safety, declares that the board will not consent to the raise, and that if it is given to the firemen it must be through a special ordinance that he or other members of the board will not endorse. Mr. Hutzell stated that the board had arranged to raise the policemen this year and the firemen next year.

Asks for Appropriation.

The board of public works, in a communication to the council asks $16,000 as a special appropriation with which to pay the city's share of the street paving projected this fall. The ordinance referring to the request was turned over to the finance committee.

Ordinances giving the board of park commissioners control of Beaver avenue, from Home avenue to Rudisill avenue, and Grand street from Grand street to Thomas street, were passed. The mayor reported that he had approved and signed ordinances giving the park board control of Thieme drive and appropriating $1,500 to the city hall account; $1,600 to the city engineer's account, and $5,300 to the garbage account, and for the improvement of sidewalk shade trees on East Wayne street and East Washington street.

SHORT SESSION IN POLICE COURT.

Judge Mungovan Let Several Drunks Go on Promises to Be Good.

All of the offenders in police court were up for either drunkenness or loitering, and the session lasted only a half hour. Twelve men were picked up by the various officers last night, but only four of them were penalized.

James McGrady was fined $5 and costs for being drunk and Ed Whyche went the same route. Albert Smith and Harry Smith, got drunk last night and were given $5 and costs this morning. The former hails from Cumberland, Md., and just blew into town.

Jim Ryan, charged with loitering, was let go. Walter Jones and Henry Green, both colored, had too much booze last night, but they displayed railroad tickets to Ashley, Ind., and promised to get out of town immediately and were given the chance to do so. James Coyle, charged with vagrancy, was let go.

Roy Smith and Wm. Baily got too much on board last night and used bad language on the streets. Judge Mungovan said that he did not want to see them lose their jobs so he let them go with a reprimand.

Gust Fordham, a corn cutter, got a jag on last night and was locked up. He promised to be good and his case was dismissed.

Claude Homer, charged with vagrancy, was not very sober this morning and his case was continued until tomorrow.

Herman Hirsche, charged with intoxication and wife beating, was let go with a warning that another offence would result in a long jail sentence. His case came up last week, but was continued until this morning.

The case of John Cavanaugh was continued again until Oct. 2.

The Louis Crowley, who was up for loitering yesterday morning, was too drunk to testify and his case was continued until Sept. 27.

Running up and down stairs, sweeping and bending over making beds will not make a woman healthy or beautiful. She must get out of doors, walk a mile or two every day and take Chamberlain's Tablets to improve her digestion and regulate her bowels. For sale by all dealers.

TAFT SAYS HE'S GOING TO WIN

President Cites Basis for His Expectation of Victory.

SURVEYS THE SCENE

New York, Sept. 25.—President Taft in an interview issued last night said his recent claims of strength were entitled to respect. He repeated that he believed he would be elected and gave his reason for denying that he had been oversanguine.

He analyzed the political situation as he saw it, maintaining that the regular republicans would carry the solid east and hold enough of the central and western states to win.

The president made these statements at the home of his brother, Henry W. Taft, where he went on his arrival from Washington late yesterday and received a number of his friends and political associates.

"Democratic Gains Failed."

"When I said a few weeks ago that I felt reasonably sure of my own re-election in November and of the success of the republican party," Mr. Taft said, "I was regarded by some as oversanguine and unaware of the situation.

"Today, however, after a number of indications that the republican party is still the dominant party, and that the expected growth of democratic strength has failed to materialize, my only declaration is shown to be entitled to respect.

"The republicans necessarily will have a reduced majority over 1908, because of the presence of three tickets in the field, but the democratic party will suffer, also. The combined strength of the third term party will not be enough to change the ultimate result.

Tells Advances in West.

"Five or six weeks ago it was asserted generally that the republican party would secure the vote of the solid east, including all of the New England states, with the exception of Maine and Vermont; that the democratic party would maintain its hold on the solid south, and that the third term party would secure the solid west, leaving only the middle west as debatable ground.

"Today, with the election still one month away, the republican party finds itself with a strengthened hold on the solid east, having routed the third term party in Vermont and the democratic party in Maine.

"The third term leaders recently conceded that we would win the state of Utah, and, after conferring with Chairman Hilles and others recently in the west, there is every reason to believe that the republican party will carry Michigan, Washington, Idaho and Wyoming. Moreover, if the proper kind of a campaign is waged we will carry Oregon, Kansas and Minnesota, where the third term strength has rapidly waned since the recent tour through that section by the party's candidate.

Hopes for Republican House.

"I am not familiar with the developments in other western states, although many good reports have come to me concerning them, but even with the states already mentioned it can be seen that there is no longer a solidid west back of the new party, but more nearly a solid west reunited in support of the republican ticket. This strength, added to the indisputable republican hold on the eastern states constitutes in itself a sufficient strength to give success to the party.

"It is scarcely necessary for me to point to the necessity of re-establishing a republican majority in the house of representatives. If this is done, I feel confident that I will be able to have placed on the statute books the workmen's compensation law, which I urged upon the last session, but which was sent to oblivion by the democratic house.

"If the country will give the republican party a complete victory in its congressional as well as its presidential ticket, a proper tariff revision will be speedily effected, with knowledge of the facts ascertained by a tariff commission, which will harm no one and remove its present defects."

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.

KERN DID NOT COME.

Senator Could Not Reach Fort Wayne for Buffaloes Initiation.

Senator John W. Kern was unable to attend the meeting of the Order of Buffaloes last night on account of a change in his speaking itinerary. Five hundred members of the organization gathered for the initiatory exercises and were much disappointed by Mr. Kern's non-appearance. C. R. Bookwalter gave the obligations of the order to seventy-five candidates. Light refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program.

If you own one you can get a bottle of HYOMEI (liquid) for only 50 cts.

If you do not own one, $1.00 will secure for you a complete outfit, including inhaler. And now you have in your possession something that has banished more cases of catarrh than all the catarrh specialists on earth.

Just breathe HYOMEI—that's all you have to do—no stomach dosing. The soothing, healing air passes over the inflamed membrane, kills the germs and heals the inflammation.

It is guaranteed to end the distress of catarrh, coughs, croup and colds, or money back. Distributed by Meyer Bros. Co., and druggists everywhere.

Booth's HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) is Australian Eucalyptus and other grand antiseptics. It contains no cocaine or other injurious drugs.

GIRL SAVES A TRAIN.

West Virginia Miss Acts Promptly and Averts Bad Wreck.

Bluefield, W. Va., Sept. 25.—Miss Beulah Chandler, aged 18, prevented the wrecking of Norfolk & Western passenger train No. 1, when she discovered tons of rock on the track at a curve near here.

She took off her apron, ran down the track and flagged the train which ran up to and touched the slide of rock.

Grateful passengers cheered her and took up a large collection in recognition of her act. Norfolk & Western officials took her name and she will be rewarded by them also.

Don't Keep On Fooling With a Poor Saw!

You threw your money away when you bought it, but don't waste your life trying to make it work. A new one won't cost much. And if you buy the right kind, it will make wood cutting easier than you ever thought it could be.

Atkins Wood Saws

Go through the wood in a jiffy, with little effort. The blade is tapered and does not stick or "buckle" in the wood. Made of high-grade steel, and holds its keen cutting edge longer than any other. Costs no more than a poor saw. Try an Atkins—be sure our name is on the blade. If it disappoints you, take it right back to the dealer.

Miss Alice Tourtellot, of West Wayne street, gave a small but beautifully appointed luncheon at 1 o'clock today at the Anthony hotel in honor of Miss Katherine Freese, whose nuptials will take place soon. In the center of the table a beautiful basket filled with pink snapdragon lent the color tone which was further expressed in crystal wedding slippers holding pink candles that were favors. The place cards were tiny birds perched on the drinking glasses that held hearts in their beaks on which names of guests were written. There were present besides Miss Freese, Miss Olive Doud, Miss Marguerite Langford, Miss Philippine Schmitt and Miss Ethel Mariotte. After the luncheon the party will attend the Temple matinee.

Schele—Jones.

Miss Essie Jones, of Logansport, and Mr. Andrew Schele, of this city, were married on Tuesday, Sept. 24, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred W. Jones. Rev. Arnold performed the ceremony. Only immediate relatives and the nearest friends were present. A wedding repast was served immediately after congratulations had been extended and later the bride and groom left for this city. The groom is a helper for the Pennsylvania company whose home is in Erie street. The bride had been employed as chief operator for the Home Telephone company at Logansport and both bride and groom number a long list of friends among their acquaintances.

Haffner—Kennelley.

There was a pretty wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kennelley, of 2144 John street, this morning, following the marriage service at St. Patrick's church when Miss Mary Kennelley became the bride of Mr. Joseph Haffner, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haffner, of 213 East DeWald street. Rev. J. F. Delaney officiated at the nuptial mass. Miss Ruth Kennelley, a sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid and the bridegroom was attended by his brother, Mr. Edmund Haffner. Mrs. Clem Schuckman sang solos during the mass. The bride, a pretty and sweet appearing young woman, wore a beautiful imported lace robe hung over white messaline and a white plush hat trimmed with white aigrettes. The bridesmaid was gowned in canary color messaline trimmed with ruffles of heavy lace on one side of the skirt and with gold fringe about the neck and sleeves. Her hat was in yellow colors to match. The bride wore her wedding gift from the groom, a slender gold chain with pendant of pearls and amethysi, and held a shower bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid's bouquet was of large yellow chrysanthemums. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to about thirty-five guests. Mrs. J. Longfield catered. The house was prettily decorated with festoons in yellow and white and the bride's table was beautiful with its flowers of white carnations and bride roses. The other table had a tall vase of yellow chrysanthemums in the center and yellow nut cups at each plate. Smilax festooned about the chandelier made the effect still prettier. This afternoon the bride and groom left for an eastern trip to Buffalo, Brooklyn and Niagara Falls. For traveling the bride wore a blue serge tailored suit with blue felt hat of tailored effect to correspond. After the first of October the bride and groom will be at home at 2144 John street. Mr. Haffner is a fine young man, intelligent, upright and has the esteem of everyone who knows him. His bride is equally well liked and highly regarded. Mr. Haffner is a machinist at the Bowser manufactory. Guests from away who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Newton and son, Virgil, of Hamler, Ohio; Miss Yant and Mr. Harry Laremore, of Napoleon, Ohio; Miss Lucy and Mr. Charles Gladieux, of Monroeville.

DOUBLE WEDDING TODAY.

Deidrick-Coughlin and Driscoll-Coughlin Marriages Occur in Wabash.

Wabash, Ind., Sept. 25.—At the St. Bernard's Catholic church in this city this morning at 8 o'clock took place a double wedding and one of the first double weddings to be held in Wabash in many years. The brides were sisters, Misses Anita Coughlin and Mary Coughlin. Miss Anita wed Robert Deidrick, of Fort Wayne, and Miss Mary was united in marriage to John Clay Driscoll, son of John Driscoll, of Lagro. The brides are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Coughlin, residing on Sherman street. All of the contracting parties have many friends in this city, Lagro and Fort Wayne, many of whom were here for the event. Rev. Father Sullivan, pastor of the St. Bernard Catholic church, officiated. The two couples were witnesses for each other. After the ceremony a bridal breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

MISS BAUM FORMS CLASSES.

Miss Minette Baum has announced that she is forming classes to teach both in German and French at her home, 310 West Berry street, advanced students or beginners. Miss Baum was graduated from the University of Chicago and studied abroad, especially in Paris, for many months.

TRIM, TAILORED AUTUMN SUIT IS PRACTICAL AND STYLISH, TOO.

A man admires a woman who looks trim.

An authoritative French maker has allowed this attractive suit to be photographed, and offers it as one of the best every-day styles for autumn to those women who prefer straight lines and the absence of all trimming.

It's tailored trimness and grace will appeal to anyone whose fancy in fashions tends toward the simple styles.

The lines of the suit are extremely plain but very good. The coat is in the new hip length and is just loose enough to be comfortable for every day wear. The sleeves are not tight enough to look drawn. The skirt is sufficiently narrow to add to the slenderness of the figure, but has width enough to hang in good lines.

The skirt and coat both fasten on the side. A stitched cross-way bias fold of the same goods is used to trim the front panel of the skirt.

Novelty mohair is an excellent material of which to make this natty costume because it has all the appearance of a cheviot while shaking the dust more readily.

FISHER'S CAREER AN UNUSUAL ONE

Shooting of Chicago Man in Michigan Bares Stormy Existence.

MUCH MYSTERY IN IT

Chicago, Sept. 25.—A "J. Rufus Wallingford" business career, linked with peculiar martial troubles, came to light yesterday as new elements of mystery in connection with the death of Harry W. Fisher, Chicago promoter, who was shot and killed on his farm near Baldwin, Mich. Fisher's death is being investigated by insurance companies which wrote policies on his life aggregating nearly $200,000.

Although Fisher was supposed to be wealthy, it is known that the flat rent at 311 Belden avenue, Chicago, where the Fishers lived, was in arrears several months and that servants and tradesmen were long unpaid. Martin Pattison, a millionaire mining man of Superior, Wis., father-in-law of Fisher, did not settle these debts until this week.

Investigators for insurance companies learned that Fisher's home life had not been happy. An artist's model nearly led to an estrangement between the promoter and his wife, it is declared, and to prevent a separation Fisher is said to have turned over his property to his wife, who gave him a weekly allowance.

Wife in Seclusion.

Mrs. Fisher refused to see inquirers at the Belden avenue flat yesterday. However, her father, who was in the city, defended her, although he admitted he knew nothing of the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

"My daughter says the bullet struck her husband in the left side and passed straight through the body," Mr. Pattison said. "As to why Mr. Fisher and O. M. Arebach, his partner in his farming venture, went hunting with a rifle and only three cartridges, as reported, we don't know. Mrs. Fisher, however, is sure her husband's death was an accident.

"Mr. Arebach is not being held in connection with Mr. Fisher's death. He is staying at Baldwin of his own free will."

According to the stores told by Mrs. Fisher, her husband and Arebach went into the woods to hunt. Fisher placed his repeating rifle against the stump of a tree and, according to Arebach, was shot accidentally. An examination of the body showed that the bullet entered the body at right angle, which the sheriff of the county in which Baldwin is situated, believes would have been impossible had the rifle been in the position described by Arebach.

Suit for Lost Arm.

New light was thrown yesterday on a previous shooting accident which cost Fisher his left arm. It became known that Fisher's claim for accident insurance was contested by the Traveler's Insurance company. Fisher brought suit for $28,000 and last February a jury in Judge Cottrell's court disagreed.

Fisher's business history is interesting. He lived in Duluth from 1904 to 1909 and was prominent in social circles.

He first attracted general attention in 1906 by his bull campaign in an Arizona stock. Considerable misinformation reached Duluth from Arizona, which caused the stock to boom. Many friends of Fisher grew suspicious and later when they were caught the same way in the Zenith Mining company, a zinc proposition, Fisher's popularity began to wane. Fisher later organized the Walnut Grove Mining company, another zinc concern, and then came to Chicago.

BELLBOY SAYS SYMPATHY PAYS

Lad Who Picked Up $300 in Tips During Vacation Gives Rules.

WORKED ON STEAMER

Chicago, Sept. 25.—Bell boys should be sympathetic as well as quick and courteous. They should have the tact to open their hearts to the troubles of their patrons as well as of opening their hands to tips.

Moreover, they should work in one place long enough for the patrons to become acquainted with them. They should give an apparently "tipless" patron as good service as one whose purse strings are loose, because the first call may be merely a test, and the second call may bring forth a coin.

These are some of the rules for successful "bell hops" laid down by Julius E. Frank, 5312 Indiana avenue, a student at the Lane high school, who earned $300 in two months on a lake steamer last summer during the vacation months.

Sympathy for Seasick.

There is nothing more pleasing to a seasick passenger than sympathy, according to Frank. Sometimes they are so ill from the motion of the boat that they forget to tip, but later when they have recovered, and every moment of their suffering is stamped upon their mind, they remember the "bell hop" who applied ice water to their head, or stroked their hands and poured words of sympathy in their ears.

Hotel bell boys apparently are lacking in the one requisite, as none could be found yesterday who had earned as much on an average as Mr. Frank. He asserted that he had averaged $26 a week during the months he worked, while the average wage for the hotel bell boys was about $16.

"I have worked for three summers on the excursion boat Carolina, plying between Chicago and Wisconsin points," said Frank yesterday. "I don't believe that there was another bell hop on the boat who earned as much as I did, although we all make good wages.

"You know if you were ever seasick that nothing is worse than to have some one tell you that you only imagine you are ill. Now, when I was called to a stateroom where some one was so ill they were praying that the boat might sink, I applied ice water on their heads if they wanted it.

"If it happened to be some elderly woman I would sit and talk to her for awhile, maybe stroke her head, and tell her how sorry I felt because she was ill."

Hotel Boy's Viewpoint.

"If I knew what sympathy was I might try it," said Joseph Flynn, a bell boy at the Auditorium hotel yesterday. "I don't see how our case can be compared to the bell hop on a boat. This hotel never rocks or pitches in a storm and no one ever gets seasick here. I've applied ice water to the heads of our patrons sometimes on 'the morning after,' but they were usually so grouchy they wanted to kick me out after I was through."

A TOILET WATER.

A good toilet water may be made in the following way: Take six ounces of deodorized alcohol and two ounces of powdered Florentine orris root. Put the powder in a china basin and pour the liquid on gradually until the whole is well mixed. Then add six drops of essential oil of violets and pour the whole into a bottle and cork it.

This should be kept three weeks. When it is wanted a little of the fragrant water should be poured into the bath.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

VALESKA SURATT

In "The Kiss Waltz" at the Majestic Theater Thursday Evening.

It is said that the Messrs. Schubert, who have sent many pretentious productions on tour, have surpassed all their previous efforts as to cast, production, costumic and scenic effects in their latest offering, "The Kiss Waltz," in which local playgoers are soon to see the noted beauty, Valeska Suratt. There is a certain charm to this Viennese operetta that is as irresistible as it is delightful. Contrary to the musical comedies years ago, there is a book in "The Kiss Waltz" whose story holds solid attention, and the innumerable dances and fantastic features make an ocular spectacle that hardly invites comparative criticism.

The element of comedy is said to be natural, and there are no arid scenes where horse play has been resorted to to make them palatable. The New York critics liken Zichrer's score to the best melodies of the Gilbert and Sullivan musical masterpieces.

Miss Suratt will have one of the finest supporting companies ever allotted to an operetta star, and "The Kiss Waltz" chorus is said to be composed of the pick of the Casino beauties. The production requires six special cars to transport its scenic and costume detail, and is heralded as the very largest musical amusement on tour the present season.

Vaughan Glaser in "The Grain of Dust."

Vaughan Glaser, who comes to the Majestic next Friday and Saturday with a special Saturday matinee, needs but little heralding here, as his last presentation of, "The Man Between" is a sufficient guarantee for the future.

In "The Grain of Dust," the estimable star, producing manager and local favorite has secured a medium that gives him and his company an opportunity that will unquestionably establish him—if possible—among his many admirers here.

"The Penalty" Next Monday.

The Majestic theater on Monday is to have a play entitled "The Penalty" by Henry C. Colwell, successfully produced in New York and Chicago by Cohan & Harris. New York critics say "powerful," "gripping," like 'Madame X.'" "Should have a long run." Amy Leslie in Chicago Daily News says "audiences will be shuddering plaintively over 'The Penalty' just as they did over 'Madame X.'"

AT THE TEMPLE

Among the many entertaining features of "Whose Little Girl Are You?" which is at the Temple theater with Morris and Thurston playing the principal roles, is a Texas Tommy Dance done by Miss Thurston and Mr. Ackerlind. The show is full of specialties of every description which are introduced during the farce much in the same manner as the old Hoyt farces. The song hits are "Whose Little Girl Are You?" "Queenie," "Game of Tennis," "Ragging the Baby to Sleep" and a half dozen others.

HOMEY HINTS

Novel Pillow Cover.

Where there are several girls in a home, quantities of old kid gloves are soon gathered together. If wrists and whole parts are cut into squares or fancy shapes and stitched onto a piece of strong calico, and featherstitched around the edges, a novel, useful cushion cover may be made. If anything is split on it, a damp sponge will remove the stain.

To Ease Shoes.

To ease a tight shoe, wring out a cloth in very hot water and place it over the spot where the shoe pinches. Repeat this as soon as the cloth becomes cold. After two or three applications the leather will have become stretched to the foot.

Renews Black.

To renovate black kid gloves and slippers, mix together in equal quantities the white of an egg, milk or cream, and black ink. Place the gloves on the hand and rub lightly with a piece of soft flannel.

Grease on Floor.

When you spill grease upon the floor, immediately pour cold water upon it. This cools it before it can strike into the wood.

Flavors Cake.

Try using lemon and vanilla together in flavoring a cake. It makes a pleasant change.

Toothpick Better.

A wooden toothpick is more cleanly than the straw from a broom, with which to test bread and cake.

The Wide End.

Always stand the ironing board on the wide end to prevent displacing cover by slipping downward.

Soup Flavor.

Browned flour will impart flavor and coloring and make soups and gravies especially good.

Discolored Tinware.

Tinware that has been discolored may be made bright by boiling it in a solution of borax water.

HOTEL AND CLUB MAY BE THE PLAN

Clemens May Get Concessions in Proposed Commercial Club Building.

A MEETING ON FRIDAY

If one of the many plans suggested for building the new Fort Wayne Commercial club home is carried out, the structure in addition to the club quarters, will contain two floors of offices, and a hotel, the latter to be operated by Daniel Clemens, now proprietor of the Alt Heidelberg, on Calhoun street. Mr. Clemens will also operate the proposed rathskeller to occupy the basement of the new building, and also the cafe, which according to preliminary plans, is to be located on the first floor.

If the club's new building project meets with success and Mr. Clemens is given a contract which will allow him to operate the concessions in the new structure, it is said that Straus Bros. & Co., of this city, will subscribe for a liberal block of the building stock. Straus Bros. recently purchased the White property at Wayne and Calhoun streets, which includes the Alt Heidelberg building, and it is said that the concern is desirous of securing the property as early as possible, for the purpose of improvement. Mr. Clemens has a lease on the hotel property on Calhoun street, but it is said he will be perfectly willing to go into the Commercial club building if arrangements toward that end can be satisfactorily made.

Such an arrangement it is claimed would be of great benefit to the Commercial club itself, as it would increase the club's revenue, which now consists only of dues and restaurant proceeds. The club would occupy two top floors of the new building, and would not itself maintain a kitchen, but would employ Mr. Clemens as caterer.

According to some of the committee members, in charge of the project, this plan is very likely to be carried out. A meeting of the general committee is to be held Friday noon at the Commercial club, when the members of the various sub-committees will receive final instructions before actively taking up the work.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

Mrs. D. N. Harding came home today from Petoskey, Mich., where she spent several weeks.

E. G. Anderson has returned from his annual outing at Burt Lake, Mich.

Mrs. John Gebert and daughter, Miss Della, of 1328 Hayden street, left today for Caldwell, Idaho, to remain several weeks.

Miss Vera and Miss Ruth Donahue pleasantly entertained a number of young people on Monday evening at their home in honor of Miss Lena Donahue, of Washington, this state. The time was spent in playing progressive bunco and prizes were earned by Dr. Earl Walker and Miss Elizabeth Gilb. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Donahue, who was assisted by Mrs. Baldwin. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The invited guests were Misses Helen Clifford, Edna Gordon, Mary Zurbuch, Elizabeth Gilb, Josephine Hayes, Esther Baldwin, Amelia Zickgraf, Hazel Baldwin, Jessie Wilkenson, and Messrs. Mergel Giles, Raymond Kiem, Roy Bromelmier, Donald Ruch, Ottis Kline, Carl Pierson, Elmer Grush, Mr. Rohyans, Dr. Earl Walker and from out of town Miss Berger, of Cleveland, and Earnest Dryer, of Indianapolis.

Dr. S. D. Sledd and family, have returned from a trip to Yellowstone park and other points of the northwest.

Miss Gertrude Schrader, of Rockhill street, has returned from Walloon Lake, Mich., where she had been for six weeks.

A linen shower was given last evening by Miss Amelia Bergk, at the home of Mrs. Theodore Koch, in honor of Miss Meline Glusenkamp, a bride-elect of this week. The rooms were prettily decorated in pink and white. The bride's chair was marked with white chrysanthemums and white tulle. The prize was won by Miss Carrie Koch and presented to the bride-elect. There were present in addition to the honor guest, the Misses Edith Koch, Helen Penningroth, Emelia and Ella Koch, Frieda and Lena Vollmerding, Clara Horstmeyer, Carrie Koch. Musical numbers were furnished by Misses Helen Penningroth, Clara Horstman and Ella Koch.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Mungovan, of Toledo, O., who have been spending a part of their honeymoon tour in this city, were honor guests at a theater party with dinner at Alt Heidelberg afterwards on Monday evening. Those who took part besides Mr. and Mrs. Mungovan were Miss Edna Gordon, Miss Marie McCullen, Miss Marie Miller and Messrs. Hugh Hart, Camillus Rohyans, Ray Goetz, George Telley and Miss Suter, of Chicago.

WILL USE ODD FELLOWS' HALL.

The Order of Sphinx has made arrangements for the use of Odd Fellows' hall in the I. O. O. F. building for its regular meetings every Friday night. The arrangements include the use of the second floor for social gatherings.

IS BUYER FOR BEYER.

George H. Crouse, the well known commission man, formerly in business on East Columbia street, has taken a position as buyer for the commission house in this city of the Beyer Bros. Co.

PATIENT AT HOSPITAL.

George F. Crowe, of Greeley street, underwent a surgical operation at the St. Joseph hospital Tuesday for appendicitis. The report from the hospital is that he is getting along nicely.

Henry C. Paul returned at noon today from a business trip to New York city, where he met with other officers and directors of the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company.

IN THE CHURCHES

SEMINARY MAY BE REMOVED

Question Before Reformed Synod Now Meeting Near Franklin, Wis.

FT. WAYNE WANTS IT

Revs. John H. Bosch, Ph. Vollmer and B. Ruf, as ministerial delegates, and Ernest Buecker, as a lay delegate, all of this city, are at Town Herman, near Franklin, Wis., in attendance on the sessions of the northwestern synod of the German Reformed churches, which continue until Monday. The synod is composed of fourteen classis and includes congregations in Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and some other northwestern states.

The mission house of the denomination, which is its college and seminary, is located there and on the occasion of the meeting of the synod the institution will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its establishment. Its management is planning a movement for the erection of a new seminary and already have a sufficient amount of money, by subscriptions, for this purpose. The old building is not large enough to accommodate the students in attendance and this is the reason for the plans for a new building.

The great question in dispute at the synod will be whether to move the college and seminary to a larger city, or leave it where it now stands. The reason for desiring to move is that it would cost more to build the new building at the old site in Franklin because of the expense in hauling new material, etc. The college is about five miles from town, and quite a distance from any large city. A large tract of land has been offered the institution at Sheboygan, Wis.

Among the cities mentioned as a location in case of the removal of the institution to some other point is Fort Wayne. A few weeks ago representatives of the German Reformed churches here held a conference and had the matter under consideration of seekin gto get the college here. The delegates now in attendance at the synod will bring their claims for Fort Wayne before the sessions when the subject comes up for consideration.

IMBECILES BURDEN A STATE.

Official Says Care Will Bankrupt Ohio Unless Growth Is Curbed.

Columbus, O., Sept. 25.—"Unless something is done, and done real quickly the state of Ohio will be bankrupt in the care of its weak-minded," declared President Allen W. Thurman of the state board of administration, today.

"We must curb the growth of imbeciles to stop the increase in the number of criminals, and the only way to do this is through a law of sterilization," he said.

An Exhibit of Gowns, Coats and Suits That Excels Anything Ever Shown in the City

Women's Tailored Suits At $35, $40 $45

This week we are showing the most complete assortment of Tailored Suits ever gathered under our roof. It is remarkable for many things. There are hardly two suits alike, so wide is the style scope of fashionable models. Each tailor-made has some distinctive feature, some point of "difference" that stamps it this season's own.

It is to the handsome Suits at $35.00, $40.00 and $45.00 that we direct particular attention. At these prices are the latest creations—Americanized adaptations of late Parisian styles that are the most correct apparel for well-dressed women. These prices represent really wonderful values considering the splendid style features, the superb tailoring and excellent materials of which the suits are made.

Copies of Paris Gowns At Very Special Prices

There is nothing to quite equal the inimitable French styles in gowns. And these copies of Paris frocks have all the charm of the original models—the artistic blending of colors, the combination of just the right silks and chiffons and satins—these are the things to delight when you see this gorgeous display.

LOVELY MODELS PRICED AT $25, $27.50, $35 and $45

Among the loveliest are the all black, or black, color-touched—made of soft charmeuse and crepe meteor. Other exquisite gowns are of the same supple fabrics in taupe, seal brown, grey and lovely shades of blue. Simplicity is the keynote of their charm—the graceful draping and perfect lines, giving all the embellishment needed.

Dancing Frocks for Young Girls and Misses

Deliciously pretty these girlish frocks which have just come in. They are made of filmy chiffons, simply made with shirred yokes and flounces, with touches of real lace, and delightful little girdles of hand-made flowers.

They're the most charming party dresses for young girls we've seen in many a day, and are specially priced at..... $16.75

Superb Evening Wraps and Smartest Top Coats

Tell us the purpose for which you desire a separate coat, and we can produce it. Never before has our showing of Wraps and Coats been so pretentious.

AFTERNOON AND EVENING WRAPS, STREET COATS, AUTOMOBILE COATS, ENGLISH TOP COATS, UTILITY COATS

In every favored material—Zibeline, chinchilla, rough cheviots, blanket cloths and the new shaggy cloths. The price range starts at $15, with excellent values at $16.75, $20.00 and $25.00.

WILSON PLEASED AT SMITH DEFEAT

Hughes' Plurality for Senator in New Jersey May Be 30,000.

OFF TO CONNECTICUT

New York, Sept. 25.—Gov. Woodrow Wilson and Gov. Hiram Johnson were to invade Connecticut today. The former left New York early today for Hartford, where he was scheduled to make an afternoon address. This evening he goes to New Haven for a meeting, while Gov. Johnson's program took him to New Haven for the afternoon and Hartford this evening.

Gov. Wilson planned to spend the night in New Haven, and tomorrow he will go to Springfield, Barre and Fall River, Mass. On Friday he will visit Boston and Bridgeport. The governor was keenly pleased today to read that early returns indicated a victory by Wm. Hughes, whom he supported against James Smith, Jr., in the New Jersey primaries for United States senator.

SMITH IS BADLY BEATEN.

Wilson Candidate for Senator May Have 30,000 Plurality.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 25.—The total democratic vote cast at the New Jersey primaries yesterday was estimated today at about 70,000. Complete returns were slow in being tabulated, but the plurality for Hughes, the Wilson candidate for United States senator was estimated as running anywhere between 20,000 and 30,000.

FOSS IS AGAIN WINNER.

Candidate for Third Term as Governor of Massachusetts.

Boston, Sept. 25.—As the result of yesterday's primaries, Eugene N. Foss will be a candidate for the third term as governor of Massachusetts. Gov. Foss' majority over District Attorney Pelletier was 26,611. On the republican side Joseph Walker, of Brookline, former speaker of the house, a majority of 10,302 over Col. Everett C. Benton. The socialist candidate is Robert D. Sawyer. Progressive and prohibition candidates for the several state offices and for representatives in congress it is expected will be nominated by petition.

Following are the republican and state tickets:

Governor—Republican, Joseph C. Walker; democrat, Eugene N. Foss.

Lieutenant Governor—Robert Luce, republican; David I. Walsh, democrat.

Secretary of State—Republican, Albert P. Langley; democrat, Frank J. Donohue.

Treasurer—Republican, Elmer C. Stevens; democrat, Joseph L. P. St. Coeur.

Auditor—Republican, John E. White; democrat, James F. Carns.

Attorney General—Republican, James M. Swift; democrat, George W. Anderson.

In a statement issued from the democratic national headquarters in the Karpen building, the rabbi is quoted as follows:

"The progressive party crusaders avow they stand at Armageddon and battle for the Lord. They quote the bible, however irrelevant, and sing hymns however inconsistent. When Oscar S. Straus, high in the councils of the Jewish church, received the nomination for governor of New York, the convention joyously sang 'Onward Christian Soldiers!'

"Woodrow Wilson is a candidate without cant. He does not sing hymns nor mouth biblical phrases. He does not merely preach the ten commandments, he practices them and also that other commandment. 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.' All commandments are important to him, the tenth, 'Thou shalt not covet,' as well as 'Thou shalt not steal.'"

ABLE TO PAY IT, SAYS TAFT.

Discusses American Workman and High Cost of Living.

New York, Sept. 25.—The Evening World today publishes an interview with President Taft in which the president goes at length into some of the current issues of the campaign. The president promises a revision of the tariff on a scientific basis so far as may be necessary to keep prices from being exorbitant. This may be done by the continuance of the tariff board's investigation into the facts, the president is quoted as saying.

The president then hinted at extra tariff revision session in case the republicans should be in control of the next congress. Referring to the high cost of living, the president expressed the opinion that American workmen are very much beter off than the workmen of Europe; not only were they able to pay the high cost of living, he said, but they could also put something aside for a rainy day. The present tariff law had no more to do with advancing the high cost of living than the latest Atlantic cable tariff he declared.

Referring to woman suffrage, the president said that this issue would have to be decided by the various states, and that he believed women to be as capable of wise use of the ballot as men.

In the maintenance of an independent judiciary as a supreme issue and that the recall applied to judges would tend to deprive the public of judges of ability, character and a high sense of duty. The republican national headquarters today declared this interview was authentic.

noon session the visitors were taken for an automobile ride about the city and tonight will be entertained with a banquet.

Refuse to Seat Schwartz.

The first conflict in the session came in the afternoon relative to the right of F. J. Schwartz, of Fort Wayne, to be seated as a delegate representing Fort Wayne local of the International Steam and Pipe Fitters' association. The American Federation of Labor having recognized but one organization in the pipe fitting industry, that of the United Association of Plumbers, Gas Fitters, Steam Fitters and Steam Fitters' Helpers, the convention's committee on credentials declined to seat Schwartz. There was a short debate on the credentials committee report and Schwartz had warm supporters, but the federation stood by the credentials committee and the motion to adopt its report prevailed. J. W. Loney, of Fort Wayne, led the fight in Schwartz's behalf.

J. J. Walsh, state factory inspector, read a report regarding inspection work and recommending that the federation go on record as favoring an investigation of the views of every candidate for the general assembly on proposed laws in behalf of bettering factory conditions.

Following the adjournment of the business session the delegates paraded through the principal streets, headed by the Richmond Union band. Last night the visitors were guests at the Murray theater.

The contest between Perkins and Henry Friedman for the presidency of the federation waxed warm and supporters of both men were sanguine of success. President Perkins' friends appeared the more active, however, and they were asserting that his election today was certain.

Committee Are Named.

The following is a list of the committees appointed by the executive committee of the State Federation of Labor:

Finance—Henry Hoeltje, Fort Wayne; Robert Leigh, Evansville; Rebecca Vance, Logansport; Andy Powers, Terre Haute; Ben F. Horton, Indianapolis.

Prison Labor—P. J. Shaughnessy, Indianapolis; William Neu, Indianapolis; C. R. Koontz, South Bend; Frank West, Indianapolis; Chester Horn, Logansport.

for an hour. Long before the colonel reached the auditorium where he was to talk it was crowded and the former president was cheered for several minutes when he appeared on the platform. His address was devoted in the main to the subject of deep waterways.

Among today's first speakers was Joe T. Robinson, governor-elect of Arkansas, who appealed to members of congress and business men of the Mississippi river valley to co-operate with the aim of developing natural resources of the section. In importance he classed the Mississippi river navigation problem with the construction of the Panama canal.

DEBATED THE QUESTION.

Federal or Joint Levee Control Is Theme at Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 25.—Advocates of joint control of the Mississippi levee systems by the states and the federal government and those who believe that the national government should be asked to assume entire charge of the construction and maintenance of the dikes debated the question today before the Inter-State Levee association in session here. George Maxwell, of New Orleans, one of the speakers of the morning session, advocated the approval of the Newlands bill pending in congress which provides for a general scheme of reclamation and among other things the building of storage reservoirs.

Luncheon for the president and other guests was served in a room in the hotel in which at least one of the conferences between the loyal governors was held half a century ago.

After the luncheon the principal feature was a speech by the president in a big tent.

Leaving Altoona late today the president expects to reach Beverly early tomorrow.

FIRST CLASH IN NEW YORK

league clubs gathered here today to fix dates for the world's championship series to settle a disputed question as to how and by whom the sale of tickets to the games should be conducted, to fix the price for seats, formally announce the eligible players, and dispose of any other business bearing upon arrangements for the big games.

Although New York is still in need of two games to clinch the National league pennant, the commission proceeded on the supposition that the championship is assured. The schedule adopted, however, was announced with a deference to the Chicago club, which is a close second in the race.

In the event of rain, it was decided that the visiting team should remain in town until the game is played.

Among the reserved seats will be a block of 75 for the national commission, two each for each member of the opposing teams, and not over fifty tickets for representatives of the local papers.

The number to be alloted to out of town correspondents was not announced. The list will be approved by the Baseball Writers' association. President Herrmann, of the national commission, who was spokesman for the conference, added that every effort would be made to prevent tickets from falling into the hands of speculators.

BASEBALL ATHLETICS

ACTRESS MAY BE THE REAL CAUSE

Heartache Probably Tells Story of Marquard's Sudden Downfall.

WILL STICK TO ART

Cincinnati, Sept. 25.—What has killed the effectiveness of Rube Marquard? Wherein lies the reason for the abrupt reversal of form of the Giant southpaw, who only a few short weeks ago was hailed as the king of all pitchers because of his extraordinary string of successive victories? Has he lost that fatal jump to the ball which had batsmen beating the air?

From present indications, Rube will not be much of a factor in the world's series games. His last times out have been marked by amateurish pitching, which has resulted in his getting some awful bumps. While disappointed New York fans are figuring out the cause of his slump, it may be well to put the "Romance of Marquard" under a microscope.

Perhaps Rube's heart has been broken and perhaps not. A few days ago a story was printed relative to the receipt of a letter in this city, in which it was stated that he was to wed Shirley Kellogg, the pretty leading woman in The Passing Show of 1912, and that, as a result, Miss Marie Lane, a Cincinnati girl, was to be her successor in the role. This was news to the base ball and theatrical colony of New York and steps were at once taken to get an admission from either Rube or Miss Kellogg. These efforts failed, however.

It was at this juncture that Cleveland was dealt a hand in the game. The mother and brothers of the pitcher live in the Forest City. Mrs. Marquard told a reporter that Rube had informed her of his marriage to Miss Kellogg. His two brothers went to New York to visit Marquard and to them he confided the knowledge of his marriage. Now comes another twist in the life of this romance of the diamond and the stage.

Stick to Stage Career.

Word has been received in Cincinnati to the effect that Miss Kellogg has decided to stick to her career behind the footlights, and she is quoted as having said that her proposed marriage to Rube had been called off by her for reasons best known to herself. Following on the heels of the letter conveying this information came another which stated that Rube had fitted up a flat in sumptuous style for his bride.

BOWLERS TO ORGANIZE.

Local Bowlers to Form Brunswick League This Evening.

Members of the Brunswick Bowling association will meet this evening at the Brunswick alleys for the purpose of making plans for the coming season. Two leagues will be maintained at the alleys this season.

Sixteen teams will compose the two leagues and local business firms have already placed forfeit money for the clubs which they will maintain.

Membership on the various clubs is open to all bowlers of the city and those desiring to affiliate with the association should report at the meeting this evening.

SPEAKER A HARD MAN FOR GIANTS

Must Be Stopped if the Title is Won by the 1911 Champions.

HAS HAD EXPERIENCE

The Giants must stop Tris Speaker to win the world's baseball championship.

This is conceded by friends of the National league, and it is supported by facts and figures. Stopping Speaker may give the Giants an experience similar to that of the tenderfoot who tried to topple a cyclone, if American league rooters are to be taken seriously.

Still there is one big precedent in favor of the Giants—world's series history shows that the stars have always failed to deliver.

Hugh Jennings calls it the "psychology of the world's series" that the great should aviate and the unsung ones shine.

Cobb was the boy who intended to hit about .800 against the Cub pitchers. What he really did was to fall a victim to the pitching of Chance's men, finally being outguessed by Mordecai Brown.

Eddie Collins was expected to star last fall. He did not. His work was mediocre. The star was Frank Baker, of Trappe.

So Tris Speaker, valued by Hugh Jennings at $25,000 and cheap at that, who this year has shared batting and fielding honors with Ty Cobb, that other speed marvel from Dixie, is banked upon to lead the assault upon the National league champions, stand as a solid wall on the defense and rampage around the bases like a bull moose in the springtime.

Speaker will be running to form if he accomplishes all of these things, but he will land a knockout punch on old Doc Prince Dent.

One thing in favor of Speaker is experience. He is no longer a youngster. He has been through the fire of one important series—the inter-city games between New York and Boston in 1909.

And in that series—pause and ponder Speaker got to the then peerless Mathewson for SIX HITS IN EIGHT TIMES AT BAT AND IN THE 20 TIMES HE WAS AT BAT IN THE SERIES HE MADE 12 HITS, AN AVERAGE FOR THE SERIES OF .600.

Stopping Speaker is apt to pile up the Giants on the field until the remains resemble that misguided hero who in yester years tried to stop a flying wedge, when flying wedges were the popular means of assassination of football heroes.

Unless Speaker falls a victim of that uncanny influence that has downed so many stars in the all-important series, he will lead the Red Hosed crew on a regular Boston tea party, just as he has led them in the league race.

Speaker has hit consistently all season. His average has hovered around .400 since early spring. Upon one occasion he went hitless for three games. Again he missed connecting for two days. These are his only lapses. He gets his hits as regularly as a hospital patient gets medicine. He is the gang boss of the greatest wrecking crew ever put together in baseball, and all pitchers look alike to him.

The American league pitchers—and there are no better than Walter Johnson, Ed Walsh, Vean Gregg, Russel Ford and Earl Hamilton—failed to stop the champions at bat or, with the aid of the catchers, on the base lines. It is unlikely New York pitchers will do better.

It is probable that McGraw will go into the series without much assistance from the erratic Marquard. Rube hasn't been of much use since he won 19 straight and since his marriage to Sherley Kellogg he has been about as valuable as a last season's bird nest. His marriage has aroused the wrath of McGraw and it is said Rube will not be used in the series unless necessity compels.

This puts the winning up to Tesreau and Mathewson, apparently. Mathewson is not the pitcher he was a few years ago and from experience, Boston has no fear of him. Tesreau is an unknown quality, but his most ardent admirers admit he is unsteady and has little that a hitting team like the Red Sox need fear.

HUGH JENNINGS SAYS

JOE WOOD, RED SOX WONDER PITCHER, IS BETTER THAN MATHEWSON; AND RAY COLLINS, OF BOSTON, IS ONE OF THE GAME'S GREATEST LEFT-HANDERS.

Manager of the Detroit American League Team.

Granting that McGraw is a greater leader than Stahl, which gives the Giants an advantage before the world's series starts—the advantage of confidence in their leader—let us consider the pitching staffs.

The pitching strength of the teams is about equal, with any possible advantage in favor of the Boston Red Sox. Much will depend upon the way the rival leaders work their pitchers.

I do not believe any man will work in more than two games in the series unless there is another rainy period such as dragged out last year's series between the Athletics and New York, in which case one pitcher on each team may work in three games.

Joe Wood, the Boston marvel, and Christy Mathewson, the wonder of the National league, will open the series. Joe Wood, with his smoky speed, I consider a greater pitcher than Christy Mathewson. No, Matty is not getting too old! Wood is simply a better pitcher.

When these men meet, as they will, the younger Wood will outpitch the veteran Mathewson. Great as he is, Matty will meet his master in the Boston speed marvel.

The second game will undoubtedly be a battle between the southpaws—Marquard of the Giants and Collins of the Red Sox. These men, going right, are nearly equal. Marquard has received far more publicity than Collins and his picture has appeared more times in the papers. His 19 straight games brought him into the limelight also, but in the meantime Ray Collins has been going along winning games consistently, without so much of a splurge, and we of the American league who have had to face him know that he is one of the greatest left-handers of the game. Probably no lefthander in the American league, unless it is Eddie Plank, is his equal.

The third duel, in my opinion, will be between two spitball pitchers—Buck O'Brien of the Red Sox and Jeff Tesreau of the Giants. This will be interesting in that it will be a battle between two stars who make the spitter their chief strength.

JOE WOOD.

Tesreau is in the spot light. He has been coming along all season and right now is doing the best work of any of the New York pitchers.

O'Brien did not reach the high standard expected of him early this season. He had been recommended very highly and had a tremendous task, to make good. However, he has shown high class of late and now is at his best.

Tesreau was a Tiger for about five minutes before we learned he belonged to some one else. He was a big boy then, with lots of speed and little pitching knowledge. He is a product of McGraw and Robinson's coaching.

If another set of men are needed, the managers will call upon Leon Ames and Hugh Bedient, both high-class pitchers. The series this year will be peculiar, inasmuch as two smoke men, two southpaws and two spitballers will face each other.

JEFF TESREAU.

TROY JUMPED THE TEAM.

Thought He Did Not Get Right Kind of Support and Quit.

Robert Troy, recruit with Detroit club, has jumped and is now at home in McDonald, Pa. This is the first news of his whereabouts, as the big fellow had been lost to all intents and purposes since Sunday evening. Discouraged by his failure to win his first big league game and attributing blame for defeat to poor support given him in crucial innings, the recruit is ready to return to minor league ball. Troy is the big southpaw who pitched for Steubensville in the O.-P. last year and who was with Roy Montgomery at Wheeling for a short time.

REPUBLICANS CAPTURE BRYAN.

Eminent Democrat Addresses Opposition Gathering in California.

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 25.—To the amusements of the democrats when Col. William J. Bryan came here yesterday to address the democratic convention, he was captured by progressive republicans and addressed their state convention before entering the democratic convention hall. He confined his remarks to the republicans to an expression of appreciation as being asked to speak before a republican convention.

Colonel Bryan devoted most of his address to recommendations for the platform of the California democrats. He declared for the New Zealand postal vote, by which traveling men and other absentees might retain their votes while away from home, modifications of the state primary law; more stringent trust laws; strict supervision of campaign expenditures and contributions and supervision of public moneys at interest. He arraigned Mr. Roosevelt's attitude toward the trusts, which he said was less logical than that of the socialists.

NOLAN SAYS HIS BOY IS FIGHTER

Thinks Willie Ritchie Will Be Champion and Gives Reasons.

BESTED AD WOLGAST

(Bill Nolan, probably the shrewdest manager of a fight in the world and the man who handled Bat Nelson when he fought Gans at Goldfield, has taken Willie Ritchie under his wing and declares that he will make a world's champion out of him. In the following story, prepared especially for this newspaper, Nolan tells what Ritchie has done in the ring. His work in the past leads Nolan to believe that he will lick Wolgast, preparations for a match now being made).

By BILLY NOLAN.

Willie Ritchie, the promising young lightweight, whose meteoric career in the prize ring has attracted the attention of the foremost critics in the country, is hardly 21 years of age. He got his chance in professional ranks when he took Wolgast's place with Freddie Welsh, who is conceded to be one of the cleverest lightweights in the world.

Welsh's performance with Packey McFarland on two occasions in which he fought the crafty Chicagoan to draws in 20-round battles is the best evidence of the Welshman's ringmanship.

Several months later Welsh was matched to box Abe Attell ten rounds. What Welsh did to Abe Attell in that ten rounds of the greatest boxing ever seen within the 24-foot ring, will long live in the memory of Los Angeles fans. He handled Attell like a cat would a mouse.

On Thanksgiving eve, Wolgast was stricken with appendicitis, necessitating the calling off of the Welsh match. This being a holiday date, Promoter McCarey was at his wits end to secure a worthy opponent for Freddie Welsh. None capable could be secured in Los Angeles. On the afternoon of November 24th Willie Ritchie received a wire from McCarey. "Will you meet Freddie Welsh tomorrow (Thanksgiving). If acceptable take afternoon train for the south."

Although not prepared for a contest of twenty rounds, let alone to be pitted against about the greatest lightweight England could boast of, Ritchie boarded the train for the south, rode 500 miles, took breakfast in a down town Los Angeles cafe, unattended by a manager or even a "pal," scurried around to secure a couple of seconds amongst strangers. Securing the men who were to attend to him during the battle this game youngster made his way to the Vernon arena, and introduced himself to McCarey. The latter, surprised at his youthful appearance, queried: "How old are you?" "Never mind, I can fight." Ritchie just had time to get ready for the ring.

In a few moments Welsh and Ritchie were called to the center of the ring. Welsh was the picture of confidence, trained to the minute, ably attended by professional seconds.

Everyone conceded a very easy victory for the Welshman. For five or six rounds Ritchie was getting more than he gave. However, he kept after Welsh and by the seventeenth round, the Californian had Welsh doing some merry sidestepping to keep out of his way; several times Welsh was in a very bad way up to the twentieth round. Lack of condition on the part of Ritchie, coupled with inexperienced handlers, was all that saved Welsh from taking the 10-second count.

For several months after this Ritchie traveled all over the country, defeating light and welterweights alike, finally arriving in Pennsylvania. There Packey McFarland was matched for six rounds with Young Ernie, the swiftest and cleverest welterweight on the Atlantic seaboard. It was the same Ernie who decisively defeated Mike Gibbons, the middleweight who is now a reigning sensation in the east. Again this young Ritchie eagerly consented to take McFarland's place as he had Wolgast's several months previous.

He fought Ernie to a standstill, sent him to the floor on several occasions, and administered to him the beating of his life.

Last May Ad Wolgast met Ritchie in San Francisco and received in four rounds the worst beating he had ever received since he rose to the exalted position of lightweight champion of the world. Leaving the ring, Wolgast looked as though he had been run through a sausage machine. If ever a champion of the world received a thorough trouncing and humiliation, it was on this night. Imprinted from the waistband to the cranium Wolgast bore the marks of the cruel punishment administered by Willie Ritchie and, depend on it, the present champion will seek all others but him in the future.

In June last, Ritchie met and defeated Joe Mandot in ten rounds, administered to the southern favorite an awful beating, thereby removing from the list the last hope that may stand in the way of Wolgast refusing Ritchie his just chance for the title.

PLAN SOCIAL FUNCTIONS.

Purdue Alumni In Annual Meeting at Commercial Club.

The alumni association of Purdue university held its semi-annual meeting at the Commercial club last night and planned to give social functions or hold business meetings once a month. The proposition of a university club was discussed, and received favorable mention. The evening was begun with a banquet in the cafe room at the club, and this was followed by informal speeches and toasts.

A "straw vote" was taken at the meeting and resulted as follows: Wilson, 14; Roosevelt, 13; Taft, 6.

COME UP TO EXPECTATION.

Joe Patchen II and Braden Direct Cop Off Pacing Honors.

Columbus, O., Sept. 25.—Joe Patchen II and Braden Direct came up to public expectation yesterday afternoon when they won the pacing stakes, that were the richest events on the first program of the Columbus Grand Circuit meeting. Over a spongy track each went a third heat in 2:04½.

The Patchen horse captured the Hotel Hartman stake his share being $2,000, away from Wydrad, a 4-year-old that is owned in Columbus. He and Grand Opera took Joe Patchen to the half of the final heat in 1:00¾.

Back of Braden Direct, winner of the Board of Trade with two heats better than 2:05, there was a sharp contest for the place. Longworth B., landed it while Knight Onward, by finishing second in the third heat, took third money. In each of these stakes, the money was divided six ways.

F. J. Jones, driving Eva Cord, was the winning reinsman in the 2:10 trot. When the 2:15 pacers, fourteen of them, came out, the largest field of this Grand Circuit season was together. The two heats raced before sundown, went to Carna G.

"BUMPUS" JONES IS ILL.

Well-Known Player Has Locomotor Ataxia and Is Helpless.

Springfield, O., Sept. 25.—Poor old "Bumpus" Jones, the ex-National league pitcher, who was an idol on the Reds' team years ago, is in a helpless condition at the St. Elizabeth hospital, Dayton, O. He played in this city in 1893. In 1901 he was hit in the stomach by a batted ball and has suffered from stomach trouble ever since.

"Bumpus" Jones is well remembered by Springfield fans, having pitched for several local amateur teams. He was raised at Jamestown, O., and after his ball days were ended he located on a truck farm near New Carlisle and attended the local market. He is now helpless from locomotor ataxia.

FIRST GAME OF CITY SERIES.

Shamrocks and Magnolias Will Meet at League Park Sunday.

The first game of the city series to be played between the Fort Wayne Shamrocks and the Fort Wayne Magnolias, will be staged at League park next Sunday afternoon. The game will be called at 2:30.

Either Cochoit, Robbins or Blakey will pitch for the Shamrocks, with the Magnolias having Rauil, Cashdollar and Diedrich to select from. Monte Hoffer will catch for the Trolley leaguers and either Hines or Uebelhoer will do the backstopping for the Mags.

The series is to be two out of three, and if the advance sale of tickets is any indication, there will be a big crowd out to see the game.

Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.

Be A Perfect Man

With No Back Pains—No Nervousness—No loss of Ambition, But With Plenty of Life and Energy and the Vigor of Youth Restored.

To be strong and manly is the aim of every man, and yet how many we find who are wasting the vitality and strength which nature gives them. Instead of developing into the strong, vigorous, manly men that nature intended them to be, they find themselves broken down, and despondent—no ambition to do anything. They struggle aimlessly along, sooner or later to become victims of dreaded disorders, their finer sensibilities blunted and their nerves shattered.

Is This the Way You Feel? Do you feel tired in the morning and easily exhausted? Is your back weak or lame? Do you have difficulty in fixing your thoughts? Is your memory failing? Are you losing ambition? Do you feel you are not the man you once were? Do you have hot flashes up and down the spine or sudden weak spells at the base of the brain, sudden spells like fright from no apparent cause? Are you very restless or sleepless at nights? Are you very nervous or irritable, with a feeling that you want to be alone? Are you gloomy with a sense of some great oppression upon you? If so, then you need my treatment now and I want you to call or write today. Don't delay. You surely do not want to remain in this condition. Don't suffer longer. I cure others. I can cure you. Master your disease before it masters you.

My Fees Are Within Reach of the Workingman

My price is always reasonable. I will give the POOREST man a chance as well as the RICH, to receive a cure from me at SMALL COST. There is no man too poor to get my advice free.

I Cure to Stay Cured Varicose Veins, Blood Disorders, Skin Disorders, Bladder and Kidney Ailments, Piles, Fistula, and all Special, Acute and Chronic Disorders of Men.

Free To Men A friendly heart-to-heart talk will COST YOU NOTHING. I have been lecturing on and treating disorders of men for many years. I have EXPERIENCE, that best of all teachers, the most thorough equipment and purest drugs that money can buy.

Honest Treatment I will use you honestly, treat you skillfully and cure you in the shortest possible time. I will positively guarantee to cure any case that I decide is curable or refund the fee. I know what I can do and have the courage of my opinion. I am willing to stake my reputation upon it.

Proofs Come and see me today, examine the living proofs that I have to offer, investigate my records as a doctor and as a man. It will cost you nothing and may mean a lifetime of health and happiness to you.

DON'T LET MONEY MATTERS OR MODESTY KEEP YOU FROM BEING CURED. CALL. I DO NOT "PATCH UP." I CURE TO STAY CURED. DO NOT DELAY. CALL OR WRITE TODAY. EVERYTHING CONFIDENTIAL.

DON'T NEGLECT CATARRH

Catarrh is a most distressing complaint, known by its symptoms of stuffy feeling in the head and nose, roaring in the ears, mucus in the throat, difficult breathing, etc. When the blood becomes thoroughly polluted with catarrhal matter the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes, causing hoarseness and often an aggravating cough, the stomach is affected, resulting in dyspepsia, loss of appetite, and gradually all the mucous membranes of the body become diseased. Catarrh is beyond the reach of local treatment. Only temporary relief can be had from the use of sprays, washes, etc. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the entire system. Then as pure, nourishing blood circulates through the body, the inflamed membranes heal, all discharges cease and every symptom of Catarrh passes away. Don't neglect Catarrh; cure it with S. S. S. as thousands have done. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

DEFENDS RULE OF DEMOCRATS

Governor Marshall Talks on State Affairs at South Bend.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 25.—Governor Thomas R. Marshall addressed a large crowd here last night in his initial speech of the campaign in St. Joseph county. His address was largely a defense of his administration, especially 'that part of it involving state finances.

He paid tribute personally to former Governor Durbin, but, replying to speeches of the latter on state finances and other comparisons of their respective administrations, pointed out the intervening years and the great increase in population and in public needs.

The economy of the present administration and the weeding out of nepotism in the capitol building and state institutions were emphasized. The address was listened to with great interest and frequently applauded.

United States Senator Benjamin F. Shively, who is now at his home in this city preparing a series of addresses which he will deliver in Indiana within the next few weeks, presided at the meeting and introduced the governor.

Talks of State Funds.

Governor Marshall said in part: "Interested, as I am, in the success of the democratic ticket and desirous of being succeeded in office by Samuel M. Ralston, who, I believe, will stand for every good thing promoting the general welfare of the people, I beg leave to trespass upon your good nature and crave your indulgence while I dryly discuss state finances, an important and much misunderstood question. I discuss this question to aid the people in determining whether they wish to continue democratic supremacy in Indiana.

"The people have been led to believe by recent speeches that this is a government of men, not laws; that the governor possesses all the power of the state; that he levies and collects taxes and spends the people's money as he pleases. That he is solely and wholly responsible for the state's finances. This is ridiculous. The constitution specifically provides that no money shall be drawn from the treasury but in pursuance of appropriations made by law.

Board Spends Nothing.

"The state board of finance has nothing whatever to do with the expenditure of public money. No power is given it in that particular. Not a dollar can be spent by an administration or by any official except as the general assembly makes the appropriation and authorizes the expenditure. It follows that a democratic administration is responsible for expenditures only when a democratic legislature has made the appropriations. We did not have a democratic legislature in Indiana until 1911. When I entered office the house of representatives was democratic and the senate republican. Not until the thirtieth day of this month shall be have a full fiscal year of expenditures authorized by a democratic general assembly.

"Two simple facts illumine the darkness into which the question of state finances has been thrown by elaborate misrepresentations and complicated comparisons. These are: That the state tax rate has since 1910 been 1½ cents less on the $100 than for any year since 1902, and that the sinking fund is being preserved intact for the purpose of paying the state debt.

Taxes Reduced.

"In 1910 the sinking fund was reduced from 3 cents to 1½ cents on each one hundred dollars. This reduction in the tax rate leaves in the pockets of the people $270,000 a year. This reduction has been in force practically three years, which means a saving to the people of $810,000.

"We had during the years of 1905, 1906 and 1907 passed through an extravagant era in public building and there is a vast difference between needful things and extravagantly needful things. The Southeastern Hospital for the Insane and the new School for the Deaf had been started on elaborate scales. These institutions have now been finished, the first at a cost of $1,500,000 and the second at a cost of $750,000. For their great cost, no democratic legislature and no democratic administration was responsible. This extravagant building era so drained the state's resources that it became necessary to transfer moneys from the sinking fund to the general fund.

Paying State Debt.

"Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars of state debt has been paid since the financial condition has been cleared. One hundred and fifty thousand will be paid next January, and each July and January thereafter, as the sinking fund is by democratic legislation being preserved for the single purpose of paying the state debt.

"My good personal friend, Col. W. T. Durbin, whose administration of state affairs I never mentioned save in the kindliest manner and whose business judgment I have never questioned, has used figures which are misleading. It has been nearly twelve years since he went into office and nearly eight years since he went out. In that period great growth has been made by the state—growth which has been accompanied by greater duties, higher responsibilities and increased expenditures.

"Since Col. Durbin left office several new institutions have been opened, namely, the Southeastern Hospital for the Insane, the State Tuberculosis Hospital, the Indiana Village for Epileptics and the new school for the deaf. The girls' school has also been separated from the woman's prison. These institutions have cost money, but economy is not parsimony, and the great state of Indiana is not willing to yield its foremost place among the states of the union in the matter of caring for its unfortunates.

"Not only has the population of the institutions of the state grown, but the cost of the care and maintenance of the inmates has increased. You men and women have observed an increase in maintaining your households; supplies and food products cost you at least 50 per cent. more now than they did eight and twelve years ago. Utmost care has been exercised in the management of our institutions. Each is governed by a board of trustees composed of two democrats and two republicans. If there has been extravagance in their management it has been bipartisan extravagance. There has been no extravagance, as a matter of fact.

"During my term as governor I have paid my own house rent, traveling expenses, telephone, telegraph and private postage bills. I am not boasting of these things, but merely stating facts. Charges of waste and extravagance demand an answer, and, speaking as governor, I here and now deny the charges as applied to the office of governor. I resent the charges of waste and extravagance because of my efforts to induce the legislatures of 1909 and 1911 to keep down their appropriations.

"My hard task was in 1909, when the state offices and the general assembly were politically mixed. Other than Dr. Aley and Lieutenant Governor Hall and myself, the state officials were republicans. The house was democratic, the senate republican. Four different messages were sent by me to the legislature in which I urged economy and warned against the unwisdom of making appropriations in excess of the estimated income of the state."

Reads From Messages.

The governor then read an extract from the four messages, giving in detail his efforts at economy and adding that bickerings between the democratic house and republican senate prevented needed financial reforms. He called attention to the fact that nepotism, which prevailed when he entered office, had been weeded out of the state house. He defended the state board of account, saying it had been championed by both parties, hence was not a partisan creation, adding that "the board has been of inestimable value to the people in perfecting uniform accounts and in compelling the repayment of money which had been either ignorantly or dishonestly appropriated, but it has had its greatest worth in reducing the expenditures of the people. In the purchase of public supplies there was a net decrease in one year of township trustees expenditures of $525,764.35." He continued:

"Complaint is made of the cost of the new registration law, and this brings us to a consideration of that new act. To be registered is one of the qualifications required by the constitution for voting in Indiana. The supreme court long ago decided that it was the duty of the general assembly to enact a registration law; also, that the law must be general in its character.

"It is unfortunate that the law must be general in its character, but in view of the fact that four years ago 2,700 men, who had landed at Ellis Island, New York, in March and April, voted in Lake county, Indiana, the following November, thereby killing the votes of 2,700 honest electors of this state, the law is a necessity. I plead with all law-abiding, patriotic citizens to comply with this law, however onerous it may be upon them.

"The people of this state are entitled to change their constitution if they can find any way to change it. And they are entitled to change it for the purpose of obtaining the referendum if they want the referendum.

"What did the last general assembly fail to do that the people wanted done? Much is said about the failure of the legislature to change the highway law and it is charged that this failure was due to the railroad lobby. I was at the state house. The railroad lobby was there and there was also a lobby of road material men that were pushing for the change as hard as the railroad lobby was pushing against it. In my opinion the controlling factor was the laborer and the farmer who wanted to work out their poll and road tax.

"The last general assembly went far in every good direction beyond the statements of the party platform. The next assembly will do likewise. The democratic party is responsive to the needs and the wishes of the people. Its legislature will meet every reasonable requst."

"CASCARETS" BEST FOR THE BOWELS

No headache, bad taste, sour stomach or coated tongue by morning.

It is more necessary that you keep your Bowels, Liver and Stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constipated waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a gentle, cleansing, too.

Lesson in Scientific Complexion Renewing

(From the Family Physician.)

Everyone has a beautiful skin underneath the one exposed to view. Bear that in mind and it will be easier to understand the correct principle in acquiring a lovely complexion. Nature is constantly shedding the top skin in flaky particles like dandruff, only much smaller in size. In abnormal conditions, or in advancing age, these particles are not shed as rapidly as in robust youth. The longer they remain the more soiled or faded they become—that's the immediate cause of a "bad complexion."

It has been discovered that ordinary mercolized wax, to be had at any drug store, will absorb these worn-out particles. The absorption, while hastening Nature's work, goes on gradually enough to cause no inconvenience. In a week or two the transformation is complete. The fresh, healthy-hued, youthful underskin is then wholly in evidence. You who are not satisfied with your complexion should get an ounce of mercolized wax and try this treatment. Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.

HOW TO PRESERVE YOUTH AND BEAUTY.

One great secret of youth and beauty for the young woman or the mother is the proper understanding of her womanly system and well-being. Every woman, young or old, should know herself and her physical make up. A good way to arrive at this knowledge is to get a good doctor book, such for instance, as "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," by R. V. Pierce, M. D., which can readily be procured by sending thirty-one cents for cloth-bound copy, addressing Dr. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y.

The womanly system is a delicate machine which can only be compared to the intricate mechanism of a beautiful watch which will keep in good running order only with good care and the proper oiling at the right time, so that the delicate mechanism may not be worn out. Very many times young women get old or run down before their time through ignorance and the improper handling of this human mechanism. Mental depression, a confused head, backache, headache, or hot flashes and many symptoms of derangement of the womanly system can be avoided by a proper understanding of what to do, in those trying times that come to all women.

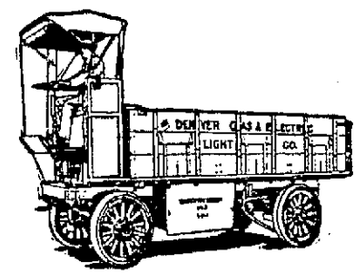
MRS. WILLIAMS.

MRS. G. H. WILLIAMS, of Lynnhaven, Va., wrote: "It is six years since my health gave way. I had female trouble and all the doctors (I employed three) said I would die. I was not able to do my work, had to hire someone all the time. Finally, I read in the papers about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and decided to try it. I had not taken but one bottle until I found it had done me good. I took, in all, five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and two of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and now I am able to do all my housework, and have gained fourteen pounds. I advise all women who suffer from female trouble to try your 'Favorite Prescription.' It's the only medicine on earth."

The Problem

Of delivery by horse drawn trucks grows each year more difficult, more costly and unsatisfactory.

The Solution



Of rapid, efficient, economical and reliable delivery is furnished in the G. V. Company's electric vehicles.

There are more G. V. trucks and wagons in daily service to-day than any other make of commercial vehicles and all other makes of electric commercial vehicles combined.

FINE TALENT FOR LECTURE COURSE

Electro-Technic Club Secures Noted Speakers for 1912-1913.

Chairman Robert O. Orff, of the lecture course committee of the Electro-Technic club for the 1912-1913 season, has issued a list of the attractions with the exception of the last number, for which negotiations are still pending. The list is as follows:

October 29, opening meeting—"Dawn of Plenty," an illustrated lecture under the International Harvester's lecture bureau, giving the history of wheat from the beginning up to the present.

November 19—"Precious Stones," by Prof. F. B. Wade, of the Shortridge High school, Indianapolis.

December 17—"Turbines," by J. J. Kline, manager of the lighting department of the Fort Wayne Electric works.

January 10 or 26—"Prevention of Accidents," M. W. Alexander, of Lynn, Mass., an official of the General Electric company. All the shop employes will be especially invited to this lecture, whether they are connected with the club or not.

February 18—Annual social meeting.

March 18—"Practical Watch Making and Method of Transmitting Time by Wire and Wireless," by Charles T. Higgenbothan, consulting superintendent of the South Bend Watch company.

April 15—Not filled.

May 20—Annual business meeting, election of officers and entertainment.

There will be several special lectures during the winter months, negotiations for some of which have already begun, but have not been closed.

CHARLEY LUCAS RESIGNS.

Well Known Stenographer Will Move to Denver.

Charles A. Lucas, stenographer and clerk for Chief Car Inspector O. J. Parks, of the Pennsylvania, has tendered his resignation to become effective October 1. Mrs. Lucas has been in failing health for a few years and her physician has recommended a sojourn in Colorado. When opportunity to get employment at Denver occurred, Mr. Lucas promptly accepted and will take his wife there to reside early in October. He is a congenial office mate and his resignation is matter for regret at the office of the Pennsylvania. His successor has not been named.

WABASH REORGANIZATION PLANS.

Winslow S. Pierce, chairman of the reorganization committee of the Wabash, is said to be highly gratified with the earnings of the company since it went into the hands of receivers. He is quoted as saying that the necessary steps are being taken to bring about a foreclosure and reorganization of the property. He also stated that the estimated gross receipts of the Wabash for the second week of September were large and showed a very substantial increase over the corresponding week of last year. If the receivers had been able to get a full quota of labor to carry out the improvement work which had been decided upon early in the season, it is altogether probable that the earnings would be still larger now than they are. Mr. Pierce is optimistic in his views concerning future business of the railroads of the country and particularly during the remaining months of the present year.

COLLISION AT KALAMAZOO.

Two Engines Smash Together in the Fair Grounds.

Two locomotives were almost totally demolished in a head-on collision at Kalamazoo at 2:30 o'clock this morning. The collision was not an accident, but a very attractive feature of the day's program of the county fair now in progress in that city. The track was one-half mile long and the engines started from each end with a full head of steam and came together about the center with a terrific crash. This feature of the fair drew crowds to Kalamazoo and the Grand Rapids had to furnish extra equipment to handle the business today. The two colliding engines were purchased from the Michigan Central company especially for the purpose.

BALLASTING ELEVATED TRACKS.

First Train Load of Gravel Dumped This Morning.

Ballasting of the elevated track of the Wabash which was to have commenced Monday morning, began today. The first train load of gravel arrived here at 10 o'clock and was dumped just east of Fairfield avenue. This gravel, which is of excellent quality for the purpose, comes from the pits at Wolcottville, something over fifty miles away via the route traveled by the trains.

Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE.

Tomorrow evening there will be a special meeting at the Railroad Y. M. C. A. rooms for those who will attend the Railroad Y. M. C. A. conference at Chicago next week. The local workers have organized a "Fort Wayne Chicago Conference club" and the meeting tomorrow evening is for the purpose of talking over conference matters and getting in shape to do good work there. A. B. Minear, International Railroad Y. M. C. A. secretary, will be here to address the gathering. W. S. Whitbeck, secretary of the local association, is now sending out credentials to the Fort Wayne people, who will attend the conference. There will be upwards of twenty of them.

PLACE TELEPHONE INSTRUMENTS.

Members of the telephone crew working on the local division of the Wabash railroad reached Huntington Monday and began installing one of the new telephones which is to be used in handling the trains over the road. The telephone is similar to the type used on leased wires in newspaper offices being especially adapted to long distance work. While the appliance has been placed in the office, the wires have not been strung yet, so it may be several weeks before the new system of train dispatching is placed in operation. It is the intention to use the telephone altogether unless weather conditions interfere.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR OIL DEALERS.

Next week the National Paint, Oil and Varnish association will hold its biennial convention in Atlantic City and it promises to be well attended. To handle the Chicago delegation and delegates west of that city the Pennsylvania will run a special train next Sunday. It will consist of seven cars, will leave Chicago at 11:30 o'clock in the morning and reach Fort Wayne at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. It is exxpected that there will be several paint and oil men from this city join the western delegates and go to Atlantic City on the special train.

SCHOOL BEGINS IN NOVEMBER.

Terry T. King, of the engineering department of the Fort Wayne Electric works, who conducts the winter night schools in electrical engineering for the Electro-Technic club, announces that he will open the school the first Monday in November. Last year there were seventy-five students enrolled in Mr. King's class and the interest now being displayed presages a much larger membership the coming season.

FREIGHT HANDLER HURT.

William Dunsee, of Wallen, Ind., employed as a freight handler in the Lake Shore warehouse, suffered a painful injury to one of his feet early this morning. While at work a heavy bar of iron fell on Dunsee's foot, bruising the flesh and breaking one of the bones. After the injured member had been dressed by Dr. Frank I. Dinnen, Mr. Dunsee was taken to his home at Wallen.

TAKEN SICK IN SHOPS.

Fred Geerken, one of the old machinists at the Pennsylvania shops, suffered a severe attack of heart disease and fell down at the side of the machine he was operating this morning at 9 o'clock. Medical aid was summoned and the sick man was taken in a cab to his home, where he will probably be confined several days. Mr. Geerken had two or three similar experiences during the past year.

FRANK FITZPATRICK OUT.

Roundhouse Foreman Frank B. Fitzpatrick was out on the streets this morning for the first time since Sunday, when he alighted upon a stone as he jumped from the railing of a bridge at Gay street and severely sprained his left ankle. He has to use crutches in getting about and will not be at work for a week or more.

LIVED HERE YEARS AGO.

William Creigh, a member of the Chicago police force, is visiting his friends and relatives in the city, included being his uncle, Michael Creigh, of the Pennsylvania machine shop. Prior to eighteen years ago Policeman Creigh resided in Fort Wayne and worked in the Pennsylvania shops. He called there yesterday to meet some of his old friends.

MOVED IN HIS NEW HOME.

Richard Puff and his family are now comfortably housed in the home recently erected for them on Delaware avenue. Mr. Puff, who is the chief clerk at the Bass foundry office, resumed work this morning after being off a few days to help move his family and household goods.

GEN. SUPT. COTTER HERE.

S. E. Cotter, general superintendent of the Wabash, arrived in the city late this afternoon and may remain here over night. He is looking after some business connected with the track elevation work.

TAKES A CLERICAL POSITION.

Otto A. Langston has taken a position as clerk in the Pennsylvania car machine shop, commencing this morning. He was formerly a machine operator at the Fort Wayne Electric works, resigning his position there Saturday.

HAD LEG POISONED.

A. J. Snoke, a freight handler at the Nickel Plate warehouse, is disabled by a poisoned leg. The affliction first showed itself last week and has become quite painful, though it is not considered serious.

HEARS OF MOTHER'S DEATH.

T. J. Vanney, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, received a message summoning him to Indianapolis this morning. His mother, who resided in that city, died there this morning.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

H. Sreidmatter took employment at the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop this morning.

Machinist Charles Benoy, of the Bass shops, is spending the week at a lake in Michigan.

C. F. Nern, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, is off duty on account of the illness of his wife.

William Schultz, a lamp man in the signal department of the Pennsylvania, has gone to the country for a week's visit.

Charles Kelsey has taken employment as a packer with Shipping Foreman John Keiss at the Fort Wayne Electric works.

R. J. Miller resumed his clerical duties in the Pennsylvania roundhouse office this morning. He had been visiting in Ada, O.

Pennsylvania Shopmen A. J. Bobay, J. Moore, Daniel Beion, A. C. Stemmeler and Charles A. Snyder are off duty on account of sickness.

Machinist Michael Quinn, of the Wabash shops, is still unable to work, though he is improving. He has been sick over a week.

J. B. Minton, from the office of Chief Engineer Robert Trimble, of the Pennsylvania, is here on business connected with the improvements now in progress.

Engineer C. Rarrick is taking a thirty days' lay off and Engineers E. M. Newcomb, W. R. Cowell and D. S. Peterson are taking a lay off to look after business.

Passenger Engineer John Parrish resumed his duties on the Pennsylvania this morning. He had been off duty to look after private business for two weeks.

Joseph C. Brake, stenographer at the Pennsylvania road foreman's office, accompanied by his wife and baby, left yesterday for St. Cloud, Wis., where they will visit relatives a few days.

Master Mechanic Adam LaMar, of the Chicago Terminal division of the Pennsylvania, has returned to his home after attending the funeral of a relative, Engineer Pettys, who died while here to visit relatives.

Robert Schellhammer went to Aurora, Ill., this morning to do some boiler work on a steam plant. William Heuer had been engaged at the work, but was called home by the sickness of his aged father. Both men work for the Bass company.

The concrete mixers and other apparatus to be used in putting in the abutments for the elevated tracks of the Wabash at Fairfield avenue have been delivered at the scene and will soon be in operation.

C. W. Hausbach and J. Walsh, of the Wabash shops, went to Butler this morning to repair an engine that had figured in an accident and had the smokebox and pilot knocked off and the front end attachments deranged.

Oliver E. Cunningham, clerk at the Pennsylvania offices, accompanied his mother, Mrs. Ida M. Overmeyer, to Chicago this afternoon. Mrs. Overmeyer is going west for a two months' stay. She will visit friends in Seattle, Tacoma, Vancouver and other places, returning home the early part of December. Mrs. Overmeyer is matron at the Allen county orphans' asylum.

The coroner at Logansport has discovered that the man giving his name as John Sommers after he had been picked up fatally injured from the Wabash tracks was in reality John Eemling. A note in his pocket gave the latter name and also the name and address of his sister residing in St. Louis. The body is being held in a morgue at Logansport awaiting orders from his sister. The coroner gave a verdict of accidental death.

President W. C. Brown, of the New York Central, has issued a statement in reply to the story of alleged intention to cut down the schedule of the Twentieth Century limited from 18 to 20 hours, New York to Chicago. He says that the operating department finds it difficult to maintain the high speed necessary for an 18-hour train when the temperature is down to or below the zero mark and that they think it would be better to have a 20-hour schedule and reach the terminals on time than to have an 18-hour schedule and be late. President Brown says that if the change is made it will become effective, the latter part of November and be discontinued as soon as the warm weather returns.

RESENTS SHARP APPELLATION.

Pastor Sues Members of Flock Who Say He Has Serpent's Tongue.

New York, Sept. 25.—"We bring three major indictments against Dr. Harvery first, that he has failed as a preacher; second, that he has failed as a man; third, that he is a pastor with a serpent's tongue, constantly circulating or allowing to be circulated scurrilous and gossiping stories about various members of his congregation."

This statement attributed to a member of the congregation of the Washington Heights United Presbyterian church at Audubon avenue and One Hundred and Seventy-second street, caused the Rev. Joseph L. Hervey to file in the supreme court an action for $25,000 damages against members of the congregation.

Dr. Hervey says he has been pastor of the flock for six years, has always borne a good reputation and in no wise merits the false accusations.

The law suit is the result of a church controversy in which Mr. Leavitt and others of the congregation are alleged to have said Dr. Hervey regarded himself as "the Lord's anointed," and above the criticism of his parishioners. He offered to resign September 1.

PRIEST CHANGES HIS NAME.

Believes "Ski" Out of Place in German Parish.

Portland, Mich., Sept. 25.—The Rev. Father Malinowski, assistant to the Rev. Father Esper, of St. Mary's parish, was never ashamed of his name. He is of Polish descent, but was born in this country, Detroit being his native city. However, since locating in Westphalia he was impressed with the idea that any name ending with "ski" is out of place in a German community and to ally himself even more closely with his people, he has decided to drop off the latter part of his name, and in the future will be known as Father Malin. The action has been legalized by the probate court.

ABOLISH POSTOFFICE.

Authorities Predict Town Named for Famous Humorist Will Expire.

Washington, Sept. 25.—The town of Ade, Newton county, Indiana, which was named for George Ade, the humorist, got a black eye when it was announced that the postoffice there will be abolished and thereafter mail intended for citizens of Ade will be sent to Brook. It is assumed that the abolishment of the postoffice will mark the beginning of the end of the town of Ade. The department also directed that city delivery mail service be established at Whiting, Ind.

Board of Accounts Files Finding Against Many County Officials.

WILL START SUITS

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 26.—A total of $6,469.41 is alleged to have been retained in unlawful fees by former officials of several Indiana counties in reports filed with Governor Marshall yesterday by the state board of accounts. The reports were turned over to Attorney General Honan, who took steps at once to certify them to the prosecuting attorneys of the several counties where the amounts are said to be due. Action will be taken at once to recover the alleged overdrawn fees.

Three of the officials against whom the charges are drawn have made returns to their respective counties amounting to $1,173.39, leaving a total of $5,260.02 now due the counties, according to the interpretation of the law by the accounts board. All of these alleged overdrawn fees are reported in what is known as direct charges, and there are other sums, amounting to $10,768.10 charged against the same officials in constructive charges.

Alleged to Owe $1,860.36.

The counties involved in the report are: Starke, Marshall, Carroll, Morgan, Howard, Washington and Dearborn. The largest amount alleged to be due is from Lee M. Ransbottom, former auditor of Starke county, who is alleged to owe the county $1,860.36.

One of the issues between the accounts board and the officials who are alleged to owe their counties, is the propriety of their retaining fees under a law passed in 1909, giving county clerks the right to retain fees for making transcripts and doing other work. A law said to be a counterpart to the clerks' fee act, and which gave fees to sheriffs, under similar conditions, was declared invalid by the supreme court of Indiana.

In one instance, that of the case of Harry E. Reed, formel clerk of Carroll county, who is charged with direct and constructive items, returned to the state $227.39, the fees he collected up to the time the sheriff's fee law was held invalid.

DEATH ADDS NEW TANGLE TO CASE

Father of Candace Wheeler Dies Under Strange Circumstances.

MYSTERY AT DENVER

Denver, Sept. 25.—James Cooper Wheeler, of Hollis, L. I., father of Miss Candace Wheeler, who was drowned in Bowles lake, near Denver, June 23, died here last night under circumstances which the authorities consider mysterious. Wheeler came to Denver last Friday in connection with a suit involving his daughter's will. His suit to have set aside the will, which named Dr. J. H. Warrant Meyer as administrator, was postponed until October 3.

Wheeler registered under the name of "James Woodrow" and his identity did not become known until yesterday. He was accompanied by his attorney, Emil Schnallock, also of Hollis, who registered as "Emil Sheridan." Schnallock is under the care of a physician.

According to physicians Wheeler died of uraemic convulsions.

Wheeler's death probably will end the contest he instituted to gain possession of his daughter's estate, valued at $15,000. In this event, Otto Meyer, of Minneapolis, who was Miss Wheeler's fiance, will receive the bulk of the estate, after the payment of a $5,000 bequest to Dr. Meyer, Otto's brother, who is administrator. The estate comprises insurance policies amounting to $12,500 and property bequeathed by the dead girl's mother.

The fact that Miss Wheeler was not recovered for ten days after she was drowned gave rise to rumors that the drowned woman was not Miss Wheeler and that the real Miss Wheeler had gone east with the intention of going to Europe. The rumors resulted in delaying payment of her insurance policies till the body was exhumed and positive identification was made by a dentist's chart. Friends of Miss Wheeler asserted that several weeks before she was drowned all her jewelry and other belongings had been secretly removed from her rooms.

When the will was presented for probate and it was discovered that her fiance and his brother were the beneficiaries and that her father was cut off with one dollar, Mr. Wheeler instituted suit, alleging that the beneficiaries had exercised an undue influence over the girl.

The suit to break the will of Candace Wheeler will not be dismissed as a result of the death of her father, according to a statement by Emil Schnallock, attorney for the dead man. Mr. Schnallock said the contest would be pushed in behalf of Mr. Wheeler's second wife and their three children.

The attorney said Mr. Wheeler registered at a Denver hotel under an assumed name for the purpose of avoiding publicity during the time he was in Denver waiting for the suit to come to trial.

MR. PALMER ARRIVES.

Purdue Expert Here for Orchard Demonstration.

Winthia R. Palmer, Purdue university expert, has arrived in the city to direct the orchard demonstration at the Indiana school for feeble-minded youth tomorrow. Mr. Palmer, who has had wide orchard experience both in the east and, on the western coast, is enthusiastic over the possibilities of Indiana in this direction. His faith in this state as a fruit-growing territory is so strong that after having traveled all over the country he announces his intention to permanently locate in Indiana.

There are other cigars on sale just as good as Sonfield's "SMACKS," but you don't buy them for 5 cents. 9-25-tf

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 25.—Snow and cold northwest threatening to impair the quality of wheat and delay threshing, had a bullish effect today on prices. December started at 91½c to 91½c, and rose to 91⅝@91¾c.

The close was steady, with December 1@1½c lower, at 90⅝@90½c.

Hard frosts in Nebraska, South Dakota and Kansas put strength into corn. December opened at 53⅞c to 54c and climbed to 54¼c.

The close was steady with December a shade net higher at 53¾@53⅞c.

Oats showed firmness as a result of the upturn in corn. December started at 32⅝c to 32⅜@32⅝c, and steadied around 32½@32¾c.

Decreasing hog receipts made provisions act adversely to the bears. First sales varied from 2½c lower to 2½c with January at $18.25 for pork, $10.62½ for lard and $9.82½ for ribs.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, Sept. 25.—Considerable activity and an irregular undertone marked the opening dealings on the stock exchange today. Great Northern Ore and Western Maryland were up a point, with fractional advances in some specialties. Reading, Great Northern, Lehigh Valley and Atchison were fractionally lower.
The market closed irregular. Although some of the standard shares, including the Harrimans, recorded their best prices in the last hour, the hardening tendency of money and extensive profit taking, finally told.

FIFTY COME TO RESIDE HERE

freight business of the Pennsylvania company is assuming enormous proportions, and at this date 250 men are employed in this department alone.

The Labor Situation.

Fort Wayne's rapid growth during the summer months has created a condition here which calls for constant attention on the part of firms employing laborers. Construction companies and building concerns complain of the general shortage of efficient help, and some of the larger contractors declare their work may not be completed as per contract on account of this condition.
The Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction company officials this morning stated that the work of track improvement in progress here and at other points along the system is being seriously delayed on account of the scarcity of men. The company recently brought a number of men from Indianapolis to this city, but more help is badly needed.

At the opening of the inquest last Friday, officials of the meet were criticised for permitting flying after dark and for allowing two races with machines of different types at the same time.
George Mestach, whose monoplane collided with Gill's biplane, is recovering slowly from his injuries. Physicians, however, say he may never regain the use of his right arm.
Mestach's manager testified last Friday that the meet officials ordered the Belgian flyer into the air with threats of withdrawing prize money if he refused.
"When Mestach insisted on going up I told him to fly high so as not to interfere with the smaller biplanes which were flying comparatively close to the ground," said Griffith.

Verdict of Accidental Death.

A coroner's jury today returned a verdict of accidental death, in the case of Howard W. Gill, the aviator killed at the Cicero aviation meet in an aerial collision. George Mestach, whose monoplane collided with Gill's biplane, was exonerated from blame. Officials and flyers were criticised in the jury's verdict for contesting two races of different types of machines over the same course at the same time. A letter charging that the promoters and officials of the meet were responsible for Gill's death was offered in evidence. The letter was written by Maurice Prevost, the French aviator, to Mestach after the accident.

DEMONSTRATION AT STATE FARM

Allen County Fruit Growers to Be Given Some Advice.

BY PURDUE SPEAKER

The annual demonstration meeting of the Allen County Horticultural society will be held tomorrow in the Purdue university plot of the orchard of the Indiana state school farm north of the city. The meeting will be addressed and will be held under the direction of Professor M. W. Richards, assistant in horticulture in the horticultural department of the university.

Among other things of interest will be the annual orchard exhibit of the state school farm, and visitors will be shown and told the manner in which the excellent fruit was grown. Those who attended the Fort Wayne fair and saw the Indiana school exhibit will doubtless find much of interest, in attending the demonstration meeting, and all persons interested in the growing of fruit are requested to be present.

Some Good Results.

According to experts in the art of fruit culture, Indiana orchards when well cared for are capable of earning enormous returns on the money invested.

The Purdue horticultural department has nine orchards located in different parts of the state, operated by their owners under expert direction. These orchards netted their owners more than $100 per acre in the season of 1911. Some of them were neglected when taken by Purdue, while now they are paying 10 per cent interest on valuations of $900 to $1,000 per acre. Purdue does not do the work. The university experts merely tell the owners how to do it.

Several leading fruit growers in this community have requested Purdue to hold a meeting in this neighborhood, explaining how these results were obtained, and this will be done tomorrow.

All Day Meeting.

It will be an all day meeting and will be held in an orchard. In the morning various orchard problems, such as orchard cultivation, cover-crops, fertilization and pruning will be discussed. The demonstrator will have with him a kit of pruning tools and he will actually prune one or two trees so that those present may become familiar with a properly pruned tree. In the afternoon spraying problems will be taken up. The reasons for spraying will be given and the proper times for applying the mixture will be mentioned. Several of the most prominent spray materials will be made on a practical scale and will be applied to the trees.

Every person in the county who owns an orchard should plan to attend this meeting. Take your lunch and plan to stay all day for you cannot afford to miss either session.

WILL NOT HOLD PICNIC.

At a meeting last night the Trail of the Moose decided to postpone until next year their basket picnic, which was to have been held last Sunday. No definite date for the picnic can be arranged on account of the uncertainty of the weather at this time of the year. Eight candidates were initiated into the order at the meeting.

VERDICT IN EISY CASE.

Uncertain Who Fired Bullet That Killed Jackson Man.

Jackson, Mich., Sept. 25.—A coroner's jury which has been investigating the death of John Eisy, who was shot and killed on September 14, while attempting to purchase military rifles from soldiers on guard at the state prison, returned a verdict last night that Eisy came to his death by a shot from a weapon in the hands of either Frank L. Blackman or Private Howard Jackson. Blackman was captain of the company of militia on duty at the prison where rioting occurred among the convicts several weeks ago.

FIND TUSK OF MASTODON.

Ditch Diggers at Warsaw Unearth Fine, Large Specimen.

Warsaw, Ind., Sept. 25.—The tusk of a mastodon was unearthed by ditch diggers at the O. P. Smith farm today. The tusk is the largest of its kind ever seen by people of this locality, being ten feet two inches long and twenty-four inches in circumference. It broke into three pieces when taken from the ground. The find was made in marshy ground at a depth of four feet. The ditchers were Edward Kimes, Logan Kimes and John Hemmer.

OBSERVE FEAST OF TABERNACLES

First Service at Jewish Synagogue is Held This Evening.

WHAT FESTIVAL IS

At the Jewish synagogue (corner of Wayne and Harrison streets) services will be held, in celebration of the Feast of Tabernacles, Wednesday evening at 7:45 and Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Subject of sermons: Wednesday evening, "Onepointedness;" Thursday morning, "The Message of Nature." Everybody is welcome.

Succoth—The Feast of Tabernacles.

"Succoth," or the Feast of Tabernacles, falls on the 15th day of the 7th month, Tishri, which this year occurs on Thursday, September 26th. The festival lasts eight days, the final day being known as the Feast of Conclusion. Only the first and last days are regarded as days of sacred character whereon public assemblage and worship are held.

"Succoth" is in character a harvest festival. Scripturally it is known as the "Feast of Ingathering," and is ordained in Exodus XXIII-16 and XXXIV-22. Historically it is associated with the journey of the Israelites through the wilderness, when they lived in tents, or temporary habitations. In Leviticus XXIII-42 it is commanded that the Israelites shall "dwell in booths seven days," in commemoration of the fact that Israel dwelt in booths when God brought them up out of Egypt, hence the name, the Feast of Tabernacles, or Booths.

After the destruction of the national existence of the Jews, the festival gradually assumed the character of a modern harvest festival of a religious nature, in which stress is laid upon the Providence of God as evidenced in the richness and bounty of nature. Here again the high ideal of Judaism is taught in the Conception of God as the Supreme Lord of all, and in contrast to the idolatry, whether ancient or modern, that defies the forces of nature or nature itself. The fruitfulness of the soil, the teeming bounty of the earth, the Jew is reminded, are the gifts of the great Giver and Author of all life. Hence gratitude is due to him alone. Man, in the midst of his many blessings, is to rejoice before, and to give praise to Him, the supreme and all-governing Creator.

The synagogues are decorated with fruits and flowers and products of the field, and the whole service of the festival is redolent with the joyous, grateful recognition of the divine goodness and blessing.
